IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING THE OFFER

This Offer to Purchase contains important information. You should read this Offer to Purchase in its entirety before you make any decision with respect to the Offer. There is no Letter of Transmittal for this Offer.

The principal purpose of the Offer is to acquire the Notes. The Offer is being made in connection with the proposed offering (the “New Notes Offering”) by the Issuer of new senior unsecured notes denominated in U.S. dollars (the “New Notes”). The New Notes will be fully and unconditionally guaranteed by Digital Realty. The Issuer will register the offer and sale of the New Notes under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

We intend to allocate an amount equal to the proceeds from the New Notes Offering to (1) pay the consideration payable to purchase the Notes tendered and accepted for purchase in the Offer, and (2) pay fees and expenses incurred in connection with the foregoing. Following payment for the Notes accepted pursuant to the terms of the Offer, we intend, but are not obligated, to redeem all or a portion of the Notes that remain outstanding in accordance with the terms of, in the case of the 2020 Notes, the indenture, dated as of October 1, 2015 (as amended and supplemented to the date hereof, the “2020 Indenture”), by and among Digital Delta, the Issuer, Digital Realty and the 2020 Notes Trustee, under which the 2020 Notes were issued, and in the case of the 2021 Notes, the indenture, dated as of March 8, 2011 (as amended and supplemented to the date hereof, the “2021 Indenture,” and, together with the 2020 Indenture, the “Indentures”), by and among the Issuer, Digital Realty and the 2021 Notes Trustee, under which the 2021 Notes were issued. This Offer does not constitute a notice of redemption or an obligation to issue a notice of redemption for any Notes. Any remaining proceeds from the New Notes Offering may be used to temporarily repay borrowings outstanding under global revolving credit facility and Yen revolving credit facility, acquire additional properties or businesses, fund development opportunities, and to provide for working capital and other general corporate purposes, including potentially for the repayment of other debt or the repurchase, redemption or retirement of other outstanding debt securities, or a combination of the foregoing. In no event will the information contained in the Offer Documents regarding the New Notes Offering constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy any New Notes. The Offer is conditioned upon, among other things, the completion of the New Notes Offering as described under “The Offer—Conditions to the Offer” and no assurance can be given that the New Notes Offering will be completed. The New Notes Offering is not conditioned upon the consummation of the Offer.

Any Notes tendered may be validly withdrawn at or before the Expiration Time, but not thereafter, by following the procedures described herein. See “The Offer—Withdrawal of Tenders.” Tenders of Notes may not be withdrawn after the Expiration Time, unless required by applicable law. If the Offer is terminated without Notes being purchased, any Notes tendered pursuant to the Offer will be returned promptly to the tendering Holders, and the Tender Offer Consideration will not be paid or become payable.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Offer being satisfied or waived, we will, one business day after the Expiration Time (the “Acceptance Date”), accept for purchase all Notes validly tendered at or before the Expiration Time (and not validly withdrawn before the Expiration Time). We will pay the applicable Tender Offer Consideration for all Notes accepted in the Offer on the settlement date, which is expected to be June 17, 2019, the first business day after the Expiration Time assuming that the Expiration Time is not extended (such date of payment of the Tender Offer Consideration, the “Settlement Date”), or, in the case of Notes tendered by Notice of Guaranteed Delivery and purchased pursuant to the Offer, on the third business day after the Expiration Time assuming the Expiration Time is not extended (such date of payment of the Tender Offer Consideration for Notes tendered by Notice of Guaranteed Delivery, the “Guaranteed Delivery Settlement Date”), which is expected to be June 19, 2019. We will announce the determination of the applicable Tender Offer Consideration promptly on the Price Determination Date by issuance of a press release.

Also, on the Settlement Date or the Guaranteed Delivery Settlement Date, as applicable, if any, we will pay to the applicable Holders accrued and unpaid interest from the last interest payment date of the applicable Notes to, but not including, the Settlement Date. For avoidance of doubt, interest on the Notes will cease to accrue on the Settlement Date for all Notes accepted in the Offer. All Notes purchased on the Settlement Date or the Guaranteed Delivery Settlement Date, as applicable, will subsequently be retired.

Our obligation to accept for purchase, and to pay for, Notes validly tendered and not validly withdrawn pursuant to the Offer is conditioned upon the satisfaction or waiver of the following conditions: (1) the Financing Condition and (2) the General Conditions (all as defined below). See “The Offer—Conditions to the Offer.”

We reserve the right, subject to applicable law, in our sole discretion, to waive any of the conditions of the Offer, in whole or in part, at any time at or prior to the Expiration Time and from time to time. We also reserve the right, subject to applicable law, in our sole discretion, (1) to terminate or withdraw the Offer at any time, (2) to extend the Expiration Time or (3) otherwise to amend the Offer in any respect. The foregoing rights are in addition to the right to delay acceptance for purchase of Notes tendered pursuant to the Offer or the payment of Notes accepted for purchase pursuant to the Offer in order to comply with any applicable law, subject to Rule 14e-1(c) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), which requires that we pay the consideration offered or return the Notes deposited by or on behalf of Holders promptly after the termination or withdrawal of the Offer.

Unless the context otherwise requires, the terms “we,” “us,” “our,” “our company” or similar terms refer to Digital Realty Trust, L.P., provided, however, that references to such terms under “Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements” refer to Digital Realty Trust, Inc., a Maryland corporation, together with its subsidiaries.

No dealer, salesperson or other person is authorized to give any information or to make any representations with respect to the matters described in this Offer to Purchase or in the documents incorporated by reference in this Offer to Purchase other than those contained or incorporated by reference in this Offer to Purchase and, if given or made, such information or representation must not be relied upon as having been authorized by the Issuer, the Dealer Manager, the Information Agent, the Tender Agent or the Trustees.

These Offer Documents do not constitute an offer to buy or the solicitation of an offer to sell Notes in any jurisdiction in which such offer or solicitation is unlawful. In any jurisdiction where the securities, blue sky or other laws require the Offer to be made by a licensed broker or dealer, the Offer shall be deemed to be made on behalf of us by the Dealer Manager or one or more registered brokers or dealers licensed under the laws of such jurisdiction. Neither the delivery of this Offer to Purchase after the date hereof nor any purchase of Notes shall, under any circumstances, create any implication that there has been no change in our or our affiliates’ affairs since the date hereof, or that the information included or incorporated by reference herein is correct as of any time subsequent to the date hereof or thereof, respectively.

The Offer Documents have not been filed with or reviewed by the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) or any other any federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority of any country, nor has the SEC or any such commission or authority passed upon the accuracy or adequacy of this Offer to Purchase or any of the other documents delivered herewith. Any representation to the contrary is unlawful and may be a criminal offense.

The Trustees have not reviewed or approved this Offer to Purchase or the terms of the Offer.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING TENDERING NOTES

Beneficial owners whose Notes are registered in the name of a broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee must contact such broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee if they wish to tender any such Notes. Beneficial owners should be aware that their broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee may establish its own earlier deadline for participation in the Offer. Accordingly, beneficial owners wishing to participate in the Offer should contact their broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee as soon as possible in order to determine the time by which they must take action in order to so participate. See “The Offer—Procedures for Tendering Notes.”

We expect that The Depository Trust Company (“DTC”) will authorize its participants that hold Notes through it to tender their Notes as if they were Holders. To effect a tender, DTC participants may transmit their acceptance to DTC through the DTC Automated Tender Offer Program (“ATOP”), for which the Offer will be eligible, and follow the procedures for book-entry transfer set forth in “The Offer—Procedures for Tendering Notes.”

If you desire to tender your Notes and (1) your Notes certificates are not immediately available or cannot be delivered to the Tender Agent, (2) you cannot comply with the procedure for book-entry transfer, or (3) you cannot deliver the other required documents to DTC by the Expiration Time, you must tender your Notes according to the guaranteed delivery procedure described below.

Tendering Holders will not be obligated to pay brokerage fees or commissions to the Issuer, the Dealer Manager, the Information Agent, the Tender Agent or the Trustees in connection with their tendering Notes pursuant to the Offer.

SUMMARY

We are providing this Summary for your convenience. This Summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to, and should be read in conjunction with, the information appearing elsewhere or incorporated by reference in this Offer to Purchase. Each of the capitalized terms used in this Summary and not defined herein has the meaning given to it elsewhere in this Offer to Purchase.

Issuer	Digital Realty Trust, L.P.
The Notes	3.400% Notes due 2020, fully and unconditionally guaranteed by Digital Realty Trust, Inc. of which $500,000,000 aggregate principal amount is outstanding as of the date hereof, and 5.250% Notes due 2021, fully and unconditionally guaranteed by Digital Realty Trust Inc. of which $400,000,000 aggregate principal amount is outstanding as of the date hereof.
The Offer.....	We are offering to purchase for cash, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Offer Documents, any and all of the outstanding Notes pursuant to the Offer.
Expiration Time	The Offer will expire at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on June 14, 2019, unless the Offer is extended or earlier terminated.
Tender Offer Consideration	The applicable Tender Offer Consideration for each $1,000 principal amount of Notes tendered and accepted for purchase pursuant to the Offer will be determined in the manner described in this Offer to Purchase by reference to the applicable Fixed Spread for such Notes specified on the front cover of this Offer to Purchase plus the applicable Reference Yield based on the bid-side price of the applicable U.S. Treasury Reference Security specified on the front cover of this Offer to Purchase as quoted on the applicable Reference Page at 2:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Price Determination Date. The formula for determining the applicable Tender Offer Consideration is set forth on Schedule A.
Price Determination Date.....	The Price Determination Date will occur at 2:00 p.m., New York City time, on June 14, 2019, unless extended.
Accrued Interest.....	In addition to the applicable Tender Offer Consideration, the applicable Holders whose Notes are accepted for purchase will be paid accrued and unpaid interest from the last interest payment date of the applicable Notes to, but not including, the Settlement Date. No interest will be payable because of any delay by the Tender Agent, DTC or any other party in the transmission of funds to Holders or any delay in the guaranteed delivery procedures or otherwise.

Effect of the Offer on Unpurchased Notes	Any Notes not tendered and purchased pursuant to the Offer will remain outstanding. As a result of the consummation of the Offer, the principal amount at maturity of Notes that remain outstanding is expected to be significantly reduced, which may adversely affect the liquidity and, consequently, the market price for any Notes that remain outstanding after consummation of the Offer. See “Certain Considerations—Limited Trading Market.” Following payment for the Notes accepted pursuant to the terms of the Offer, we may, but are not obligated to, redeem all or a portion of the Notes that remain outstanding in accordance with the terms of the applicable Indenture. This Offer does not constitute a notice of redemption or an obligation to issue a notice of redemption.

Settlement Date	We expect the Settlement Date for all Notes accepted in the Offer will be June 17, 2019, the first business day after the Expiration Time, unless the Expiration Time is extended or the Offer is terminated earlier. Accrued interest will cease to accrue on the Settlement Date for all Notes accepted in the Offer.
Guaranteed Delivery	If you desire to tender Notes in the Offer and the procedures for book-entry transfer cannot be completed on a timely basis before the Expiration Time, your tender may still be effected if all of the guaranteed delivery procedures are followed as set forth in “The Offer—Procedures for Tendering Notes—Guaranteed Delivery.”
Guaranteed Delivery Settlement Date.....	With respect to Notes for which a properly completed and duly executed Notice of Guaranteed Delivery is delivered prior to the Expiration Time, assuming that the conditions to the Offer are satisfied or waived, we expect the Guaranteed Delivery Settlement Date for all Notes accepted in the Offer will be June 19, 2019, the third business day after the Expiration Time, unless the Expiration Time is extended or the Offer is terminated earlier. Accrued interest will cease to accrue on the Settlement Date for all Notes accepted in the Offer.

The risks included here are not exhaustive, and additional factors could adversely affect our business and financial performance, including factors and risks included in the documents incorporated by reference herein. Those risks continue to be relevant to our performance and financial condition. Moreover, we operate in a very competitive and rapidly changing environment. New risk factors emerge from time to time and it is not possible for management to predict all such risk factors, nor can we assess the impact of all such risk factors on our business or the extent to which any factor, or combination of factors, may cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statements. Given these risks and uncertainties, investors should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements as a prediction of actual results.

These forward-looking statements present our estimates and assumptions only as of the date of this Offer to Purchase (or, in the case of statements made in any documents incorporated by reference herein, as of the date of such document). Except as may be required by law, we undertake no obligation to modify or revise any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances occurring after the date of this Offer to Purchase.

CERTAIN CONSIDERATIONS

In deciding whether to participate in the Offer, each Holder should consider carefully, in addition to the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Offer to Purchase, the matters discussed below.

Limited Trading Market

The Notes are not listed on any national or regional securities exchange. To the extent that Notes are validly tendered and accepted for purchase pursuant to the Offer, the trading market for any Notes that remain outstanding after completion of the Offer is likely to become more limited than it is at present. To the extent a market continues to exist for either series of Notes, such Notes may trade at a discount compared to present trading prices depending on prevailing interest rates, the market for debt instruments with similar credit features, our operating and financial performance and other factors. The extent of the market for either series of the Notes and the availability of market quotations will depend upon the number of Holders, the interest in maintaining a market in such Notes on the part of securities firms and other factors. There is no assurance that an active market in either series of Notes will exist, and no assurance can be made as to the prices at which such Notes may trade after the consummation of the Offer.

A debt security which is part of a series with a small outstanding principal amount available for trading (a smaller “float”) may command a lower price than would a comparable debt security of a series with a larger float. Therefore, the market price for Notes that are not tendered and accepted for purchase pursuant to the Offer may be affected adversely to the extent that the principal amount of Notes purchased pursuant to the Offer reduces the float. A reduced float may also make the trading price of Notes that are not purchased in the Offer more volatile.

The Consummation of the Offer is Subject to Satisfaction of Certain Conditions

The consummation of the Offer is subject to, and conditioned upon, satisfaction or waiver of (1) the Financing Condition and (2) the General Conditions. These conditions are described in more detail in this Offer to Purchase under “The Offer— Conditions to the Offer.” There can be no assurance that such conditions will be satisfied or waived with respect to the Offer.

The Applicable Consideration Offered for the Notes Does Not Necessarily Reflect the Fair Value of the Notes

The applicable consideration offered for the Notes pursuant to the Offer does not reflect any independent valuation of such Notes and does not take into account events or changes in financial markets (including interest rates) after the commencement of the Offer. We have not obtained or requested a fairness opinion from any banking or other firm as to the fairness of the applicable consideration offered for the Notes. If a holder tenders Notes, such holder may or may not receive more or as much value than if he, she or it chose to keep them.

Tendering Notes Will Have Tax Consequences

See “Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations” for a discussion of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Offer.

Subsequent Repurchases of Notes; Discharge

From time to time after the Expiration Time or termination of the Offer, we intend, but are not required, to acquire any Notes that are not purchased pursuant to the Offer through optional redemption provisions of the applicable Indenture, open market purchases, privately negotiated transactions, tender offers, exchange offers or otherwise, upon such terms and at such prices as we or such affiliates may determine, which may be more or less than the price to be paid pursuant to the Offer and could be for cash or other consideration. Proceeds from the New Notes Offering not used to fund the purchase of Notes pursuant to the Offer may be used to redeem and discharge such portion of the Notes subject to the Offer that are not purchased in the Offer, to temporarily repay borrowings outstanding under our global revolving credit facility and Yen revolving credit facility, acquire additional properties or businesses, fund development opportunities, and to provide for working capital and other general corporate purposes, including potentially for the repayment of other debt or the repurchase, redemption or retirement of other outstanding debt securities, or a combination of the foregoing. There can be no assurances as to which, if any, of these alternatives or combinations thereof we may choose to pursue in the future. Nothing contained in the Offer will prevent us from exercising our rights under the applicable Indenture to defease or satisfy or otherwise discharge our obligations with respect to either series of Notes by depositing cash or securities with the applicable Trustee in accordance with the terms of the applicable Indenture.

Purpose and Background of the Offer

The purpose of the Offer is to acquire all outstanding Notes. We may exercise our right to optionally redeem all or a portion of the Notes of either series not purchased by us in the Offer, but we are not obligated to do so. The Offer Documents do not constitute a notice of redemption of the Notes of either series.

Position Regarding the Offer

Neither we nor any of our affiliates, the Dealer Manager, the Information Agent, the Tender Agent or the Trustees, nor any of their affiliates, makes any recommendation to any Holder whether to tender or refrain from tendering any or all of such Holder's Notes. Neither we nor any of our affiliates, the Dealer Manager, the Information Agent, the Tender Agent or the Trustees, nor any of their affiliates, has authorized any person to make any such recommendation. Holders are urged to evaluate carefully all information in the Offer Documents, consult their own investment and tax advisors and make their own decisions about whether to tender Notes, and, if they wish to tender Notes, the principal amount of Notes to tender.

Tender Offer Consideration

The applicable Tender Offer Consideration offered per $1,000 principal amount of Notes validly tendered and accepted for purchase pursuant to the Offer will be calculated in accordance with Schedule A hereto, so as to result in a price as of the Settlement Date based on a yield to the par call date for the Notes equal to the sum of:

- the applicable Reference Yield based on the bid-side price of the applicable U.S. Treasury Reference Security set forth for the applicable series of Notes on the front cover of this Offer to Purchase, as quoted on the applicable Reference Page at 2:00 p.m., New York City time, at the Price Determination Date, plus
- the applicable Fixed Spread set forth for the Notes on the front cover of this Offer to Purchase.

This sum is referred to in this Offer to Purchase as the Repurchase Yield. Specifically, the applicable Tender Offer Consideration offered per $1,000 principal amount of Notes validly tendered and accepted for purchase will equal:

- the present value per $1,000 principal amount of all remaining payments of principal and interest on the applicable Notes, discounted to the Settlement Date in accordance with the formula set forth on Schedule A hereto, at a discount rate equal to the applicable Repurchase Yield, minus
- the applicable Accrued Interest up to, but not including, the Settlement Date per $1,000 principal amount of the Notes.

Schedule A contains the formula to be used in calculating the applicable Tender Offer Consideration for both series of Notes, and Schedule B-1 and Schedule B-2 contains a hypothetical calculation of the Tender Offer Consideration and Accrued Interest for the 2020 Notes and the 2021 Notes, respectively.

Subject to the terms and conditions described in this Offer to Purchase, if a Holder validly tenders its Notes pursuant to the Offer prior to or at the Expiration Time, and such Holder's Notes are accepted for purchase, such Holder will receive the applicable Tender Offer Consideration for each $1,000 principal amount of its tendered Notes.

In addition to the applicable Tender Offer Consideration, all Holders of Notes accepted for purchase will also receive the applicable Accrued Interest from the applicable last interest payment date up to, but not including, the Settlement Date, payable on the Settlement Date or the Guaranteed Delivery Settlement Date, as applicable.

Because the consideration applicable to the Offer is based on a fixed spread pricing formula linked to the yield on the applicable U.S. Treasury Reference Security, the actual amount of consideration that may be received by a tendering Holder pursuant to the Offer will be affected by changes in such yield during the term of the Offer prior to the Price Determination Date. After the Price Determination Date, when the consideration applicable to the Offer is no longer linked to the yield on the applicable U.S. Treasury Reference Security, the actual amount of cash that may be received by a tendering Holder pursuant to the Offer will be known, and Holders will be able to ascertain the applicable Tender Offer Consideration, that would be received by all tendering Holders whose Notes are accepted for purchase pursuant to the Offer in the manner described above.

In the event of any dispute or controversy regarding the applicable (i) Tender Offer Consideration, (ii) Reference Yield, (iii) Repurchase Yield or (iv) amount of Accrued Interest for Notes tendered and accepted for purchase pursuant to the Offer, the Issuer's determination shall be conclusive and binding, absent manifest error.

Prior to 2:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Price Determination Date, Holders may obtain a hypothetical quote of the yield of the applicable U.S. Treasury Reference Security (calculated as of a then-recent time) and the resulting applicable hypothetical Tender Offer Consideration, by contacting the Dealer Manager at its telephone number set forth on the back cover of this Offer to Purchase. In addition, as soon as practicable after the Price Determination Date, the Issuer will publicly announce the pricing information by press release, if applicable.

We will accept tenders of Notes of each series in principal amounts of $1,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof. No alternative, conditional or contingent tenders will be accepted.

Financing of the Offer

The total amount of funds required to purchase all of the Notes sought in the Offer and to pay all accrued and unpaid interest on purchased Notes is expected to be approximately $935.0 million, assuming all of the Notes are validly tendered and not withdrawn at or before the Expiration Time and that payment for all tendered Notes is made on June 17, 2019. We intend to fund the consummation of the Offer and pay fees and expenses incurred in connection with the foregoing with the proceeds of the New Notes Offering. Following payment for the Notes accepted pursuant to the terms of the Offer, we may, but are not obligated, to redeem all or a portion of the Notes that remain outstanding in accordance with the terms of the applicable Indenture. This Offer does not constitute a notice of redemption or an obligation to issue a notice of redemption. The Offer is conditioned on, among other things, the completion of the New Notes Offering as described below under the caption “—Conditions to the Offer.”

In no event will the information contained in this Offer to Purchase regarding the New Notes Offering constitute an offer to sell, or the solicitation of an offer to buy, the New Notes.

Price Determination Date; Expiration Time; Extensions, Amendments and Termination

The Price Determination Date is 2:00 p.m., New York City time, on June 14, 2019, unless extended, in which case the Price Determination Date will be such date to which the Price Determination Date is extended. The Expiration Time for the Offer is 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on June 14, 2019, unless extended or earlier terminated, in which case the Expiration Time will be such date to which the Expiration Time is extended or earlier terminated.

In our sole discretion, we reserve the right to extend the Price Determination Date or the Expiration Time or otherwise amend the Offer for any purpose, from time to time, including to permit the satisfaction or waiver of any or all conditions to the Offer, by giving written or oral notice to the Tender Agent and by making a public announcement in the manner described under “—Announcements” below. During any extension of the Offer, all Notes previously tendered will remain subject to the Offer unless validly withdrawn at or prior to the Expiration Time.

The Issuer reserves the right, subject to applicable law, to:

- waive any and all conditions to the Offer;
- terminate or withdraw the Offer;
- extend the Expiration Time;
- extend the Price Determination Date; or
- otherwise amend the Offer in any respect.

If the Offer is terminated, Notes tendered pursuant to the Offer will be returned promptly to tendering Holders. The Issuer reserves the right, subject to applicable law, to (1) accept for purchase and pay for all Notes validly tendered at or before the Expiration Time and to keep the Offer open or extend the Expiration Time and/or the Price Determination Date and (2) waive any and all conditions to the Offer for Notes tendered at or before the Expiration Time.

Any extension, amendment or termination will be followed as promptly as practicable by a public announcement of the extension, amendment or termination in the manner described in “—Announcements” below, which announcement in the case of an extension of the Expiration Time and/or Price Determination Date will be made no later than 9:00 a.m. New York City time on the business day after the previously scheduled Expiration Time and/or Price Determination Date, as applicable.

Any waiver or amendment to the Offer will apply to all Notes tendered pursuant thereto, regardless of when or in what order those Notes were tendered.

Announcements

If we are required to make an announcement relating to an extension of the Expiration Time, the Price Determination Date, the Settlement Date and/or the Guaranteed Delivery Settlement Date, to a waiver, amendment or termination of the Offer, or to our acceptance for payment of the Notes, we will do so as promptly as practicable, and in the case of an extension of the Expiration Time and/or Price Determination Date, no later than 9:00 a.m., New York City time on the next business day after the previously scheduled Expiration Time and/or Price Determination Date, as applicable. Announcements will be published by means of a news release to a U.S. nationally recognized press service and filed with the SEC.

Conditions to the Offer

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Offer, and in addition to, and not in limitation of, our rights to extend or amend the Offer, the closing of the Offer is subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions:

- (1) our receipt of aggregate proceeds (before underwriters' discounts and commissions and other offering expenses) in the New Notes Offering, on or prior to the Acceptance Date on terms satisfactory to us (the "Financing Condition"); and
- (2) the General Conditions having been satisfied.

The "General Conditions" with respect to the Offer will not be considered satisfied if any of the following conditions occurs (and, to the extent any such condition has occurred, has not been waived by us):

- there has been threatened or instituted or there is pending any action, suit or proceeding (or there shall have been any material adverse development in any action, suit or proceeding currently instituted, threatened or pending) by any government or governmental, regulatory or administrative agency, authority or tribunal or by any other person, domestic, foreign or supranational, before any court, authority, agency or other tribunal that directly or indirectly:
 - o challenges or seeks to make illegal, or to delay or otherwise directly or indirectly to restrain, prohibit or otherwise affect the making of the Offer, the acceptance for purchase of, or payment for, some or all of the Notes pursuant to the Offer or otherwise relates in any manner to the Offer; or
 - o in the Issuer's reasonable judgment, could materially and adversely affect the business, condition (financial or otherwise), assets, income, operations or prospects of Digital Realty and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or otherwise materially impair in any way the contemplated future conduct of the business of Digital Realty or any of its subsidiaries;
- there has occurred any of the following:
 - o any general suspension of trading in, or limitation on prices for, securities on any United States national securities exchange or in the over-the-counter market;
 - o the declaration of a banking moratorium or any suspension of payments in respect of banks in the United States, whether or not mandatory;
 - o the commencement or escalation of a war, armed hostilities or other international or national calamity, including, but not limited to, an act of terrorism, directly or indirectly involving the United States;
 - o any limitation, whether or not mandatory, by any governmental, regulatory or administrative agency or authority on, or any event that, in the Issuer's reasonable judgment, could materially affect, the extension of credit by banks or other lending institutions in the United States;

- o any decrease of more than 10% in the Dow Jones Industrial Average, New York Stock Exchange Index, Nasdaq Composite Index or the Standard and Poor's 500 Composite Index measured from the close of trading on June 7, 2019, any significant adverse change in the price of the Notes, a material impairment in the trading market for debt securities, any significant increase in the interest rate, distribution rate or other significant change in the terms for debt security offerings in the United States, or any changes in the general political, market, economic or financial conditions in the United States or abroad that could have, in the Issuer's reasonable judgment, a material adverse effect on Digital Realty's and its subsidiaries' business, condition (financial or otherwise), assets, income, operations or prospects, taken as a whole, or on the trading in the Notes, or the New Notes Offering, or on the benefits of the Offer to us; in the case of any of the foregoing existing at the time of commencement of the Offer, or in the Issuer's reasonable judgment, a material acceleration or worsening thereof; or
- o any change or changes, or threatened change or changes, in Digital Realty's or its subsidiaries' business, condition (financial or otherwise), assets, income, operations, prospects or share ownership that, in the Issuer's reasonable judgment, has or will have a material adverse effect on Digital Realty or its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or on the benefits of the Offer to us.

The foregoing conditions are for our sole benefit and may be asserted by us regardless of the circumstances giving rise to any such conditions, including any action or inaction by us. Our failure at any time to assert any of the foregoing conditions will not be considered a waiver of our right to assert such conditions, and our right to assert a condition is an ongoing right which we may assert at any time and from time to time. Our determination concerning any of the events described above will be final and binding absent a finding to the contrary by a court of competent jurisdiction. We reserve the right, subject to applicable law, in our sole discretion, to waive any of the conditions, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time.

Acceptance of Notes for Purchase; Payment for Notes

We expect the Acceptance Date to be one business day after the Expiration Time, so long as the conditions to the Offer have been satisfied or waived by such time. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Offer, we will pay for Notes validly tendered pursuant to the Offer at or before the Expiration Time on the Settlement Date or the Guaranteed Delivery Settlement Date, as applicable.

We reserve the right, in our sole discretion:

- to delay acceptance for purchase of Notes tendered under the Offer or payment for Notes accepted for purchase, subject to Rule 14e-1 under the Exchange Act, which requires that we pay the consideration offered or return the Notes deposited by or on behalf of the Holders promptly after the termination or withdrawal of the Offer; and
- to terminate or withdraw the Offer at any time and not accept for purchase any Notes.

In all cases, payment for Notes accepted for purchase pursuant to the Offer will be made only after timely receipt by the Tender Agent of certificates representing the Notes tendered pursuant to the Offer or confirmation of a book-entry transfer of the Notes into the Tender Agent's account at DTC pursuant to the procedures set forth under "—Procedures for Tendering Notes."

For purposes of the Offer, we will be considered to have accepted for purchase validly tendered Notes, or defectively tendered Notes as to which we have waived the defects, if, as and when we give oral notice promptly confirmed in writing or written notice of acceptance of such Notes to the Tender Agent. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Offer, payment for Notes accepted for purchase in the Offer will be made by us by deposit with the Tender Agent (or upon its instructions, DTC), which will act as agent for the tendering Holders for the purpose of receiving the applicable Tender Offer Consideration and transmitting such monies to the appropriate Holders.

If, for any reason, acceptance for purchase or payment of Notes validly tendered pursuant to the Offer is delayed or we are unable to accept for purchase or pay for validly tendered Notes pursuant to the Offer, then, without prejudice to our rights under “—Expiration Time; Extensions, Amendments and Termination” and “— Conditions to the Offer” above and “—Withdrawal of Tenders” below, but subject to Rule 14e-1 under the Exchange Act, the Tender Agent may, nevertheless, on our behalf, retain tendered Notes, and such Notes may not be withdrawn.

If any tendered Notes are not accepted for purchase for any reason pursuant to the Offer, or if certificates are submitted evidencing more Notes than those that are tendered, certificates evidencing unpurchased Notes will be returned, without expense, to the tendering Holder (or, in the case of Notes tendered by book-entry transfer into the Tender Agent’s account at DTC pursuant to the procedure set forth under “—Procedures for Tendering Notes— Book-Entry Delivery Procedures,” such Notes will be credited to the account maintained at DTC from which such Notes were delivered) promptly following the date on which Notes are accepted for purchase or the date of termination of the Offer, as applicable.

Holders that tender Notes that are accepted for purchase pursuant to the Offer will be entitled to accrued and unpaid interest on such Notes to, but not including, the Settlement Date. No additional interest will be payable because of any delay by the Tender Agent or DTC or any other person in the transmission of funds to Holders or any delay in the Guaranteed Delivery procedures or otherwise.

Holders that tender Notes purchased in the Offer will not be obligated to pay transfer taxes with respect to the purchase of such Notes.

Procedures for Tendering Notes

General

For a Holder to be eligible to receive the applicable Tender Offer Consideration, the Holder must validly tender its Notes pursuant to the Offer at or before the Expiration Time and not withdraw those Notes, or deliver a properly completed and duly executed Notice of Guaranteed Delivery, substantially in the form attached as Appendix A hereto, at or before the Expiration Time.

The method of delivery of Notes or Notice of Guaranteed Delivery, any required signature guarantees and all other required documents, including delivery through DTC and any acceptance of an Agent’s Message transmitted through ATOP, is at the election and risk of the person tendering Notes, transmitting an Agent’s Message or Notice of Guaranteed Delivery, and delivery will be considered made only when actually received by the Tender Agent. If delivery is by mail, we suggest that the Holder use properly insured, registered mail with return receipt requested, and that the mailing be made sufficiently in advance of the Expiration Time to permit timely delivery to the Tender Agent. Tenders of Notes pursuant to the Offer will be accepted only in principal amounts equal to $1,000 with respect to each series of Notes and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof.

Tender of Notes, Binding Agreement

The tender of Notes by a Holder, pursuant to the procedures set forth below, and the subsequent acceptance of that tender by us, will constitute a binding agreement between that Holder and us in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Offer to Purchase, which agreement will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York.

Tender of Notes Held Through a Custodian

Any beneficial owner whose Notes are registered in the name of a broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee and who wishes to tender Notes should contact such broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee promptly and instruct such broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee to tender such Notes on such beneficial owner's behalf.

Beneficial owners should be aware that their broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee may establish its own earlier deadline for participation in the Offer. Accordingly, beneficial owners wishing to participate in the Offer should contact their broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee as soon as possible in order to determine the time by which they must take action in order to participate.

Tender of Notes Held Through DTC

To validly tender Notes that are held through DTC, DTC participants should electronically transmit their acceptance through ATOP (and thereby tender Notes), for which the Offer will be eligible. Upon receipt of such Holder's acceptance through ATOP, DTC will edit and verify the acceptance and send an Agent's Message to the Tender Agent for its acceptance. Delivery of tendered Notes held through DTC must be made to the Tender Agent pursuant to the book-entry delivery procedures set forth below.

Except as provided below, we may, at our option, reject such tender.

If you desire to tender your Notes or use the guaranteed delivery procedures prior to or on the Expiration Time through ATOP, you should note that you must allow sufficient time for completion of the ATOP procedures during the normal business hours of DTC on such date.

Book-Entry Delivery Procedures

The Tender Agent will establish an account with respect to the Notes at DTC for purposes of the Offer within two business days after the date of this Offer to Purchase, and any financial institution that is a participant in DTC may make book-entry delivery of the Notes by causing DTC to transfer such Notes into the Tender Agent's account in accordance with DTC's procedures for such transfer. The confirmation of a book-entry transfer into the Tender Agent's account at DTC, as described above, is referred to in this Offer to Purchase as a "Book-Entry Confirmation."

The term "Agent's Message" means a message transmitted by DTC to, and received by, the Tender Agent and forming a part of the Book-Entry Confirmation, which states that DTC has received an express acknowledgment from the DTC participant tendering the Notes.

Holders wishing to tender Notes must allow sufficient time for completion of the ATOP procedures during the normal business hours of DTC.

Guaranteed Delivery

If you desire to tender Notes in the Offer and the procedures for book-entry transfer cannot be completed on a timely basis before the Expiration Time, your tender may still be effected if all of the following conditions are met:

- the tender is made by or through DTC;
- a properly completed and duly executed Notice of Guaranteed Delivery, substantially in the form provided by the Issuer, attached as Appendix A hereto, is received by the Tender Agent, as provided below, before the Expiration Time; and
- a Book-Entry Confirmation, together with an Agent's Message, are received by the Tender Agent within two trading days after the date of execution of the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery.

The Notice of Guaranteed Delivery may be transmitted in accordance with the usual procedures of DTC and the Tender Agent; provided, however, that if the notice is sent by DTC through electronic means, it must state that DTC has received an express acknowledgment from the Holder on whose behalf the notice is given that the Holder has received and agrees to become bound by the form of the notice to the Tender Agent. If the ATOP procedures are used, the DTC participant need not complete and physically deliver the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery. However, the DTC participant will be bound by the terms of the Offer.

Guaranteed deliveries may be submitted only in authorized denominations.

Payment for Notes tendered by guaranteed delivery procedures will take place on the Guaranteed Delivery Settlement Date, which, assuming that the conditions to the Offer are satisfied or waived, we expect will be June 19, 2019, the third business day after the Expiration Time, unless the Expiration Time is extended or the Offer is terminated earlier.

Foreign Holders that want to tender using a guaranteed delivery process should contact their brokers or the Tender Agent.

FOR THE AVOIDANCE OF DOUBT, THE DELIVERY OF SUCH NOTES TENDERED BY GUARANTEED DELIVERY PROCEDURES MUST BE MADE NO LATER THAN 5:00 P.M., NEW YORK CITY TIME, ON JUNE 18, 2019, WHICH IS TWO BUSINESS DAYS FOLLOWING THE EXPIRATION TIME (THE "NOTICE OF GUARANTEED DELIVERY DATE"); PROVIDED, THAT THE APPLICABLE ACCRUED INTEREST WILL CEASE TO ACCRUE ON THE SETTLEMENT DATE FOR ALL NOTES ACCEPTED IN THE OFFER, INCLUDING THOSE TENDERED BY THE GUARANTEED DELIVERY PROCEDURES SET FORTH ABOVE, AND UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES WILL WE PAY ADDITIONAL INTEREST ON THE APPLICABLE TENDER OFFER CONSIDERATION AFTER THE SETTLEMENT DATE BY REASON OF ANY DELAY IN THE GUARANTEED DELIVERY PROCEDURES.

Mutilated, Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificate

If a Holder wishes to tender Notes pursuant to the Offer, but the certificates evidencing such Notes have been mutilated, lost, stolen or destroyed, such Holder should contact the applicable Trustee, to receive information about the procedures for obtaining replacement certificates for Notes.

Other Matters

All questions as to the form of all documents and the validity (including time of receipt) and acceptance of all tenders of Notes will be determined by us, in our sole discretion, and our determination will be final and binding absent a finding to the contrary by a court of competent jurisdiction. Conditional or contingent tenders will not be considered valid. We reserve the absolute right to reject any or all tenders of Notes determined by us not to be in proper form or if the acceptance or payment for such Notes may, in our opinion, be unlawful. We also reserve the absolute right to waive any defect, irregularity or condition of tenders to particular Notes. Our interpretations of the terms and conditions of the Offer will be final and binding absent a finding to the contrary by a court of competent jurisdiction. Any defect or irregularity in connection with tenders of Notes must be cured within such time as we determine, unless waived by us. Tenders of Notes will not be considered to have been made until all defects and irregularities have been waived by us or cured. None of the Issuer, the Dealer Manager, the Information Agent, the Tender Agent, the Trustees, any of their affiliates, or any other person will be under any duty to give notice of any defects or irregularities in tenders of Notes, or will incur any liability to Holders for failure to give any such notice.

Withdrawal of Tenders

Any Notes tendered may be validly withdrawn at, or at any time before, the Expiration Time, but not thereafter, by following the procedures described herein; provided however, Notes tendered may be validly withdrawn at any time after the 60th business day after commencement of the Offer to Purchase if for any reason the Offer to Purchase has not been consummated. Tenders of Notes may not be withdrawn or revoked after the Expiration Time, unless required by applicable law.

For a withdrawal of a tender of Notes to be effective, a written or facsimile transmission of a notice of withdrawal or a Request Message (as defined below) must be received by the Tender Agent at its address set forth on the back cover of this Offer to Purchase at or before the Expiration Time.

Any notice of withdrawal must:

- (1) specify the name of the Holder of the Notes to be withdrawn;
- (2) contain the description of the Notes to be withdrawn, the certificate numbers shown on the particular certificates representing such Notes (or, in the case of Notes tendered by book-entry transfer, the number of the account at DTC from which such Notes were tendered and the name and number of the account at DTC to be credited with the Notes withdrawn) and the principal amount of such Notes; and
- (3) be accompanied by documents of transfer sufficient to have the applicable Trustee register the transfer of the Notes into the name of the person withdrawing such Notes.

The signature(s) on the notice of withdrawal of any tendered Notes must be guaranteed by an Eligible Institution, unless the Notes have been tendered for the account of an Eligible Institution.

In lieu of submitting a written, telegraphic or facsimile transmission notice of withdrawal, DTC participants may electronically transmit a request for withdrawal to DTC. DTC will then edit the request and send a request message (a “Request Message”) to the Tender Agent. If the Notes to be withdrawn have been delivered or otherwise identified to the Tender Agent, a Request Message or a signed notice of withdrawal will be effective immediately upon receipt of such Request Message or written or facsimile notice of withdrawal, even if physical release has not yet then been effected.

Withdrawal of Notes may only be accomplished in accordance with the foregoing procedures.

Notes validly withdrawn may thereafter be retendered at any time at or before the Expiration Time by following the procedures described under “—Procedures for Tendering Notes.”

All questions as to the validity, including time of receipt and of notices of withdrawal, will be determined by us, in our sole discretion, and our determination will be final and binding absent a finding to the contrary by a court of competent jurisdiction. None of the Issuer, the Dealer Manager, the Information Agent, the Tender Agent, the Trustees, any of their affiliates or any other person will be under any duty to give notification of any defect or irregularity in any notice of withdrawal, or incur any liability for failure to give such notification. We reserve the right to contest the validity of any revocation.

Subject to applicable law, if, for any reason whatsoever, acceptance for purchase of, or payment for, any Notes validly tendered pursuant to the Offer is delayed (whether before or after our acceptance for purchase of the Notes), or we extend the Offer or are unable to accept for purchase or pay for the Notes validly tendered pursuant to the Offer, then, without prejudice to our rights set forth herein, we may instruct the Tender Agent to retain tendered Notes, and those Notes may not be withdrawn, except to the extent that you are entitled to withdrawal rights as described above.

The Notes are debt obligations of the Issuer and are governed by the applicable Indenture. No appraisal or other similar statutory rights are available to Holders in connection with the Offer.

CERTAIN UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

General

The following is a general discussion of certain U.S. federal income tax considerations relating to Holders of the Notes with respect to the Offer. This discussion is for general information only and does not consider all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to a particular Holder in light of the Holder's individual circumstances or to certain types of Holders subject to special tax rules, including, without limitation, financial institutions, broker-dealers, insurance companies, tax-exempt entities, dealers in securities or currencies, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts, U.S. expatriates, traders in securities who elect to apply a mark-to-market method of accounting, persons that hold Notes as part of a "straddle," a "hedge," a "conversion transaction," or other "integrated transaction," persons that acquired Notes in connection with employment or the performance of services, persons acquiring New Notes in the New Notes Offering, U.S. Holders (as defined below) whose "functional currency" is not the U.S. dollar, persons subject to special tax accounting rules as a result of any item of gross income with respect to the Notes being taken into account in an applicable financial statement, and S corporations, partnerships and other pass-through entities (or investors in such entities). In addition, this discussion does not address state, local or foreign tax considerations with respect to the Offer, any considerations with respect to FATCA (which for this purpose means Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, the Treasury regulations and administrative guidance promulgated thereunder, any intergovernmental agreement entered in connection therewith, and any non-U.S. laws, rules or directives implementing or relating to any of the foregoing), alternative minimum taxes, the Medicare tax on certain investment income, or any U.S. federal tax considerations other than U.S. federal income taxation (such as estate or gift taxes). This summary assumes that U.S. Holders have held their Notes as "capital assets" within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") (generally, property held for investment).

This summary is based on the Code and applicable Treasury regulations, rulings, administrative pronouncements and judicial decisions in effect as of the date hereof, all of which are subject to change, perhaps retroactively, so as to result in U.S. federal income tax considerations that are different from those discussed below. We have not obtained, and do not intend to obtain, a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") with respect to the U.S. federal income tax considerations described herein and, as a result, there can be no assurance the IRS will not challenge one or more of the tax consequences described herein and that a court would not agree with the IRS.

For purposes of this discussion, a "U.S. Holder" is a beneficial owner of Notes that for U.S. federal income tax purposes is or is treated as: (i) an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States; (ii) a corporation created or organized under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia; (iii) an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or (iv) a trust that is subject to the primary supervision of a U.S. court and the control of one or more U.S. persons, or that has a valid election in effect under the applicable Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person under the Code.

For purposes of this discussion, a "Non-U.S. Holder" is a beneficial owner of Notes that for U.S. federal income tax purposes is or is treated as an individual, a corporation or an estate or a trust that, in each case, is not a U.S. Holder.

If any entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds a Note, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of a partner in the partnership generally will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Any partners of a partnership holding the Notes are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding the consequences of the Offer.

Tendering U.S. Holders

Sale of Notes Pursuant to the Offer. The receipt of cash by a U.S. Holder in exchange for a Note pursuant to the Offer will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. A U.S. Holder tendering a Note generally will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between (i) the amount of cash received in exchange for such Note (other than any amount allocable to accrued but unpaid interest on the Note, which will be taxable as described below) and (ii) the U.S. Holder's "adjusted tax basis" in the Note at the time of sale. Generally, a U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in a Note will equal the cost of the Note, increased by any market discount previously included in the U.S. Holder's income with respect to the Note (in the case of market discount, pursuant to an election to include market discount in income currently as it accrues), and reduced (but not below zero) by any amortizable bond premium that an electing U.S. Holder has previously amortized with respect to the Note. Amortizable bond premium is generally defined as the excess of a U.S. Holder's tax basis in the Note immediately after its acquisition by such U.S. Holder over the sum of all amounts payable on the Note after the purchase date other than payments of stated interest. Subject to the market discount rules discussed below, gain or loss recognized by a U.S. Holder tendering a Note generally will be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holder's holding period for the Note is more than one year at the time of the sale. Non-corporate taxpayers generally are subject to reduced rates of U.S. federal income taxation on net long-term capital gains. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to certain limitations.

Accrued and Unpaid Interest. Any amounts received pursuant to the Offer that are attributable to accrued and unpaid interest on a Note will be taxable to a U.S. Holder as ordinary income when accrued or received (to the extent not previously taken into account) in accordance with the U.S. Holder's method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Market Discount. An exception to the capital gain treatment described above may apply to a U.S. Holder that purchased a Note at a "market discount." Subject to a statutorily-defined de minimis exception, a Note has a market discount if the U.S. Holder's initial tax basis in the Note was less than the Note's stated principal amount. In general, any gain recognized by a U.S. Holder on the sale of a Note having market discount in excess of the de minimis amount will be subject to tax as ordinary income to the extent of the market discount accrued during the period the Note was held by such U.S. Holder, unless the U.S. Holder previously elected to include market discount in income as it accrued for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Market discount will be treated as having accrued on a ratable basis unless the U.S. Holder elected to accrue market discount using a constant-yield method. Gains in excess of such accrued market discount will generally be capital gains, as discussed above.

Tendering Non-U.S. Holders

Sale of Notes Pursuant to the Offer. Subject to the discussion below concerning accrued interest, a Non-U.S. Holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax on any gain recognized on a sale of the Notes pursuant to the Offer unless:

- the gain is effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States and, if a tax treaty so provides, the Non-U.S. Holder maintains a U.S. permanent establishment to which the gain is attributable; or
- the Non-U.S. Holder is an individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the sale, and certain other conditions are met.

A Non-U.S. Holder described in the first bullet point above generally will be required to pay U.S. federal income tax on the net gain derived from the sale in the same manner as if such Non-U.S. Holder were a U.S. Holder, unless an applicable income tax treaty provides otherwise, and if such Holder is a foreign corporation, it may also be required to pay an additional branch profits tax at a 30% rate (or a lower rate if so specified by an applicable income tax treaty) on such effectively connected gain, as adjusted for certain items. A Non-U.S. Holder described in the second bullet point above will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at a 30% rate (or, if applicable, a lower treaty rate) on the gain derived from the sale, which may be offset by certain U.S. source capital losses.

Accrued Interest. Any amount received by a Non-U.S. Holder pursuant to the Offer that is attributable to accrued interest that is not effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a U.S. trade or business generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax, provided that:

- the Non-U.S. Holder does not actually or constructively own a 10% or greater interest in the capital or profits of the Issuer;
- the Non-U.S. Holder is not a bank that received the Note on an extension of credit made pursuant to a loan agreement entered into in the ordinary course of its trade or business;
- the Non-U.S. Holder is not a controlled foreign corporation actually or constructively related to us (within the meaning of the Code); and
- either (1) the Non-U.S. Holder certifies in a statement provided to the applicable withholding agent under penalties of perjury that it is not a "United States person" as defined in the Code and provides its name and address; (2) a securities clearing organization, bank or other financial institution that holds customers' securities in the ordinary course of its trade or business and holds the Note on behalf of the Non-U.S. Holder certifies to the applicable withholding agent under penalties of perjury that it, or the financial institution between it and the Non-U.S. Holder, has received from the Non-U.S. Holder a statement under penalties of perjury that such holder is not a United States person and provides a copy of such statement to the applicable withholding agent; or (3) the Non-U.S. Holder holds its Note directly through a "qualified intermediary" (within the meaning of applicable Treasury regulations) and certain conditions are satisfied.

If a Non-U.S. Holder does not satisfy the requirements above, the amount attributable to accrued interest paid to such Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to a 30% U.S. federal withholding tax unless such Non-U.S. Holder is entitled to a reduction in or an exemption from withholding on such interest as a result of an applicable tax treaty. To claim such entitlement, the Non-U.S. Holder must provide the applicable withholding agent with a properly executed IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8BEN-E (or other applicable documentation) claiming a reduction in or exemption from withholding tax under the benefit of an income tax treaty between the United States and the country in which the Non-U.S. Holder resides or is established.

If accrued interest paid to a Non-U.S. Holder is effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business within the United States (and, if required by an applicable tax treaty, such Non-U.S. Holder maintains a U.S. permanent establishment to which the interest is attributable), then the Non-U.S. Holder will be exempt from the U.S. federal withholding tax described above. To claim the exemption, the Non-U.S. Holder must furnish to the applicable withholding agent a valid IRS Form W-8ECI, certifying that interest paid on a note is not subject to withholding tax because it is effectively connected with the conduct by the Non-U.S. Holder of a trade or business within the United States.

Any such effectively connected interest generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at the regular graduated U.S. federal income tax rates in the same manner as if such Non-U.S. Holder were a U.S.

Holder, unless an applicable income tax treaty provides otherwise. In addition, a Non-U.S. Holder that is a corporation may be subject to an additional branch profits tax at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate specified by an applicable income tax treaty) on such effectively connected interest, as adjusted for certain items.

Non-U.S. Holders that do not timely provide the applicable withholding agent with the required certification, but that qualify for a reduced rate under an applicable income tax treaty, may obtain a refund of any excess amounts withheld by timely filing an appropriate claim for refund with the IRS. Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding their entitlement to benefits under any applicable income tax treaty.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

A U.S. Holder whose Notes are tendered and accepted for payment pursuant to the Offer may be subject to certain information reporting requirements (unless the U.S. Holder is an exempt recipient) with respect to any amounts received pursuant to the Offer (including accrued interest). In addition, a U.S. Holder may be subject to backup withholding with respect to the receipt of cash in exchange for a Note unless the U.S. Holder (i) establishes that it is a corporation or other exempt recipient or (ii) provides the applicable withholding agent with a correct taxpayer identification number (“TIN”) and certifies that the U.S. Holder is a U.S. person, the TIN is correct (or that the U.S. Holder is awaiting a TIN) and the U.S. Holder is not currently subject to backup withholding. U.S. Holders are encouraged to consult their tax advisors as to their qualification for exemption from backup withholding and the procedure for obtaining such exemption.

In general, information reporting and backup withholding will not apply to the sale of Notes by a Non-U.S. Holder pursuant to the Offer, provided that the Non-U.S. Holder has provided the required documentation that it is not a U.S. person (for example, IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8BEN-E). However, information returns are required to be filed with the IRS in connection with any interest paid to the Non-U.S. Holder pursuant to the Offer, regardless of whether any tax was actually withheld. Copies of information returns that are filed with the IRS may also be made available under the provisions of an applicable treaty or agreement to the tax authorities of the country in which the Non-U.S. Holder resides or is established.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amount paid as backup withholding would be creditable against the Holder’s U.S. federal income tax liability and may entitle the Holder to a refund, provided that the requisite information is timely provided to the IRS.

THE DISCUSSION SET FORTH ABOVE IS INCLUDED FOR GENERAL INFORMATION PURPOSES ONLY. ALL HOLDERS ARE ENCOURAGED TO CONSULT THEIR TAX ADVISORS TO DETERMINE THE U.S. FEDERAL, STATE AND LOCAL AND FOREIGN TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE OFFER.

SCHEDULE A
Formula for Determining the Applicable Tender Offer Consideration and Accrued Interest

YLD	=	The Repurchase Yield expressed as a decimal number.
CPN	=	The contractual annual rate of interest payable on a Note expressed as a decimal number.
N	=	The number of scheduled semi-annual interest payments from, but not including, the Settlement Date to, and including, the par call date for the Notes.
S	=	The number of days from and including the semi-annual interest payment date immediately preceding the Settlement Date up to, but not including, the Settlement Date. The number of days is computed using the 30/360 day-count method.
Exp		Exponentiate. The term to the left of “exp” is raised to the power indicated by the term to the right of “exp.”
N Σ k=1		Summate. The term in the brackets to the right of the summation symbol is separately calculated “N” times (substituting for “k” in that term each whole number between 1 and N, inclusive), and the separate calculations are then added together.
Accrued Interest		$$1,000(CPN)(S/360)$
Tender Offer Consideration		The price per $1,000 principal amount of a Note (excluding Accrued Interest). A tendering Holder will receive a total amount per $1,000 principal amount (rounded to the nearest cent) equal to the Tender Offer Consideration plus Accrued Interest.

Formula for Tender Offer Consideration

If N is not a whole number, the “Nth” term of the summate formula shall be $($1,000 \text{ (CPN} \times 92/360)) / ((1+YLD/2) \exp (k-S/180))$
