IMPORTANT INFORMATION

A beneficial owner of Notes that are held of record by a broker, dealer, custodian bank, depository, trust company or other nominee must instruct such nominee to tender the Notes on the beneficial owner's behalf. See "Description of the Offers—Procedure for Tendering Notes."

DTC has authorized DTC participants that hold Notes on behalf of beneficial owners of Notes through DTC to tender their Notes as if they were Holders. To effect a tender, DTC participants may transmit their acceptance to DTC through DTC's Automated Tender Offer Program ("ATOP"). To effect such a tender, participants should transmit their acceptance through ATOP and follow the procedure for book-entry transfer set forth under "Description of the Offers—Procedure for Tendering Notes." Neither Holders nor beneficial owners of tendered Notes will be obligated to pay brokerage fees or commissions to the Dealer Managers, the Information and Tender Agent or the Company. If you desire to tender your Notes and (1) your Notes certificates are not immediately available or cannot be delivered to the Information and Tender Agent, (2) you cannot comply with the procedure for book-entry transfer or (3) you cannot deliver the other required documents to the Information and Tender Agent by the expiration of the Offers, you must tender your Notes according to the guaranteed delivery procedures described below.

Questions and requests for assistance may be directed to the Dealer Managers or the Information and Tender Agent at their respective addresses and telephone numbers set forth on the back cover of this Offer to Purchase. Additional copies of this Offer to Purchase and the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery and other related materials may be obtained from the Information and Tender Agent at its address and telephone numbers set forth on the back cover of this Offer to Purchase. Beneficial owners may also contact their brokers, dealers, custodian banks, depositories, trust companies or other nominees through which they hold the Notes with questions and requests for assistance.

Concurrently with the launch of the Offers, the Company is issuing a notice of redemption in respect of any 2021 Notes not purchased by the Company in the Offer, at a price equal to the greater of (1) 100% of the principal amount of such Notes plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of redemption, if any, and (2) the sum of the present values of the remaining scheduled payments of principal and interest on such Notes (excluding any portion of such payments of interest accrued as of the date of redemption) discounted to the redemption date on a semi-annual basis (assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months) at the sum of (i) the adjusted treasury rate (as defined in the prospectus supplement dated March 9, 2011 relating to the 2021 Notes) plus (ii) 20 basis points, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the redemption date. The Notes are governed by the Indenture, dated as of February 10, 2000, among the Company and the Trustee (as supplemented through the date hereof, the "Indenture").

Neither this Offer to Purchase nor the relevant Offer constitutes a notice of redemption under the optional redemption provisions of the Indenture.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Offers, the consummation of the Offers and the Company's obligation to accept for purchase, and to pay for, Notes validly tendered (and not validly withdrawn) pursuant to the Offers are subject to the satisfaction of or waiver of the following conditions: (a) the successful completion by the Company of the Proposed Financing (as defined below) (the "Financing Condition"); and (b) the other conditions set forth in "Description of the Offers—Conditions to the Offers." The Company reserves the right to amend or waive any of the conditions of the Offers, in whole or in part, at any time or from time to time, in its sole discretion, subject to applicable law.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Offers, the Company expects to accept for purchase promptly following the Expiration Time all of the Notes validly tendered and not validly withdrawn (the date of such acceptance, the "Acceptance Date"). With respect to Notes accepted for purchase on the Acceptance Date and delivered at or prior to the Expiration Time, the Holders thereof will receive payment of the Consideration for such accepted Notes on or promptly after the Acceptance Date, with the date on which the Company deposits with The Depository Trust Company ("DTC") the Consideration for such Notes, together with an amount equal to Accrued

Interest thereon, being referred to as the “Settlement Date.” With respect to accepted Notes delivered pursuant to the guaranteed delivery procedures described below, the Holders thereof will receive payment of the Consideration for such Notes on the business day after the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery Date (as defined below), together with an amount equal to Accrued Interest thereon, such date being referred to as the “Guaranteed Delivery Settlement Date.” For the avoidance of doubt, interest will cease to accrue on the Settlement Date for all Notes accepted in the Offers. All Notes accepted in the Offers will be canceled and retired by the Company.

The statements made in this Offer to Purchase are made as of the date on the cover page. The delivery of this Offer to Purchase and the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery shall not under any circumstances create any implication that the information contained herein is correct as of a later date or that there has been no change in such information or in the affairs of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates since such date.

This Offer to Purchase does not constitute an offer to purchase or the solicitation of an offer to sell any Notes in any jurisdiction in which, or to or from any person to or from whom, it is unlawful to make such offer or solicitation under applicable securities, “blue sky” or other laws. Nothing in this Offer to Purchase or the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery constitutes an offer to sell any securities.

No dealer, salesperson or other person has been authorized to give any information or to make any representation not contained in this Offer to Purchase and, if given or made, such information or representation may not be relied upon as having been authorized by the Company or the Dealer Managers.

None of the Company, its management or Board of Directors, the Trustee, the Information and Tender Agent, the Dealer Managers or any of their respective affiliates makes any recommendation as to whether Holders should tender, or refrain from tendering, all or any portion of the principal amount of their Notes pursuant to the Offers. Holders must make their own decisions with regard to tendering Notes and, if they choose to do so, the principal amount of Notes to tender pursuant to the Offers.

In the event that the Offers with respect to the Notes are withdrawn or otherwise not completed, the Consideration will not be paid or become payable to Holders who have validly tendered their Notes in connection with the Offers. In any such event, Notes previously tendered pursuant to the Offers will be promptly returned to the tendering Holder.

Subject to applicable laws and the terms set forth in the Offers, the Company reserves the right, with respect to the Notes, to (i) waive or modify in whole or in part any and all conditions to the Offers, (ii) extend the Expiration Time, (iii) modify or terminate the Offers, (iv) decrease the principal amount of Notes subject to the Offers or (v) otherwise amend the Offers in any respect.

Global Bondholder Services Corporation is acting as the Information and Tender Agent (in such capacity, the “Information and Tender Agent”) for the Offers. The Trustee under the Indenture pursuant to which the Notes were issued is The Bank of New York Mellon (the “Trustee”). Merrill Lynch International, Morgan Stanley & Co. Attention: Company Secretary

You should rely only on the information contained in, or incorporated by reference in, this Offer to Purchase. The Company has not authorized anyone else to provide you with different or additional information. This Offer to Purchase does not offer to sell or solicit any offer to buy any notes in any jurisdiction where the offer or sale is unlawful. You should not assume that the information in this Offer to Purchase or in any document incorporated by reference is accurate as of any date other than the date on the front cover of the applicable document.

CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Offer to Purchase, including the information incorporated into this Offer to Purchase by reference, contains “forward-looking statements,” which involve risks and uncertainties. All statements, other than statements of historical facts, that are included in or incorporated by reference into this Offer to Purchase, or made in presentations, in response to questions or otherwise, that address activities, events or developments that the Company expects or anticipates to occur in the future, including such matters as projections, capital allocation, future capital expenditures, business strategy, competitive strengths, goals, future acquisitions or dispositions, development or operation of power generation assets, market and industry developments and the growth of its business and operations (often, but not always, through the use of words or phrases such as “believes,” “plans,” “intends,” “will likely result,” “are expected to,” “will continue,” “is anticipated,” “estimated,” “projection,” “target,” “goal,” “objective,” “outlook” and similar expressions), are forward-looking statements. Although the Company believes that in making any such forward-looking statement its expectations are based on reasonable assumptions, any such forward-looking statement involves uncertainties and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the discussion of under “Certain Significant Consequences” contained elsewhere in this Offer to Purchase, in the section captioned “Principal risk factors and uncertainties” beginning on page 44 of our Annual Report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2019, which is incorporated in this Offer to Purchase by reference.

Any forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date on which it is made, and except as may be required by applicable law, the Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. New factors emerge from time to time, and it is not possible for the Company to predict all of them; nor can the Company assess the impact of each such factor or the extent to which any factor, or combination of factors, may cause results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement. You should not unduly rely on such forward-looking statements. Any forward-looking statements included in this Offer to Purchase should not be construed as exhaustive.

RISK FACTORS

Before making a decision whether to tender Notes pursuant to the Offer, Holders of Notes should carefully consider the risks and uncertainties described in this Offer to Purchase.

Changes in Reference Yields on U.S. Treasury Reference Security

The Consideration for each series of Notes will be based on the bid-side yield of the applicable U.S. Treasury Reference Security as of the Price Determination Date, as calculated by the Dealer Managers in accordance with standard market practice. This yield may fluctuate during the term of the Offer prior to the Price Determination Date. As a result, the actual amount of cash that will be received by a tendering Holder of a series of Notes pursuant to the Offer will be affected by such changes and may be different than if such amount were calculated based on the yield of the U.S. Treasury Reference Security prevailing on dates or times different to the Price Determination Date. Changes in the yield on the applicable U.S. Treasury Reference Security following the Price Determination Date will not alter the Consideration unless the terms of the Offer are amended.

Limited Trading Market

To the extent that only a portion of the Notes are tendered and accepted in the Offers, the trading market for Notes that remain outstanding will become more limited. A bid for a debt security with a smaller outstanding principal amount available for trading (a smaller “float”) may be lower than a bid for a comparable debt security with greater float. Therefore, the market price of any untendered or otherwise unpurchased Notes may be adversely affected to the extent that the Notes tendered and purchased pursuant to the Offers reduce the float. The reduced float may also tend to make the trading price more volatile. Holders of untendered or unpurchased Notes may attempt to obtain quotations for such Notes from their brokers; however, there can be no assurance that an active trading market will exist for the Notes following the Offers. The extent of the public market for the Notes following consummation of the Offers would depend upon the number of Holders holding Notes remaining at such time, and the interest in maintaining a market in the Notes on the part of securities firms and other factors.

Redemption; Subsequent Repurchases of Notes

Concurrently with the launch of the Offers, the Company is issuing a notice of redemption in respect of any 2021 Notes not purchased by the Company in the Offer, at a price equal to the greater of (1) 100% of the principal amount of such Notes plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of redemption, if any, and (2) the sum of the present values of the remaining scheduled payments of principal and interest on such Notes (excluding any portion of such payments of interest accrued as of the date of redemption) discounted to the redemption date on a semi-annual basis (assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months) at the sum of (i) the adjusted treasury rate (as defined in the prospectus supplement dated March 9, 2011 relating to the 2021 Notes) plus (ii) 20 basis points, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the redemption date.

Neither this Offer to Purchase nor the relevant Offer constitutes a notice of redemption under the optional redemption provisions of the Indenture.

Irrespective of the redemption of the 2021 Notes, the Company may otherwise acquire any Notes that remain outstanding after the Expiration Time through open market or privately negotiated transactions, one or more additional tender offers, or otherwise, upon such terms and at such prices as the Company may determine, which may be more or less than the prices to be paid pursuant to the Offers or in a redemption.

Responsibility for complying with the procedures of the Offers

Holders of Notes are responsible for complying with all of the procedures for tendering Notes for purchase. If the instructions are not strictly complied with, tenders may be rejected. None of the Company, the Dealer Managers or the Information and Tender Agent assumes any responsibility for informing any Holder of Notes of irregularities with respect to such Holder's participation in the Offers.

Consummation of the Offers may not occur

The Company's obligation to accept and pay for, Notes validly tendered pursuant to the Offers is conditioned upon the satisfaction or waiver of the Financing Condition and the other conditions set forth in "Description of the Offers— Conditions to the Offers." The Company cannot assure you that the Offers will be consummated or that such failure to consummate the Offers will not have a negative effect on the market price and liquidity of the Notes.

Completion, termination and amendment

Until we announce whether we have accepted valid tenders of Notes pursuant to the Offers, no assurance can be given that the Offers will be completed. In addition, subject to applicable law and limitations described elsewhere in this Offer to Purchase, we may, in our sole discretion, extend, amend, waive any condition of or, upon failure of a condition to be satisfied or waived prior to the Expiration Time, terminate the Offers.

Compliance with offer and distribution restrictions and agreements, acknowledgments, representations, warranties and undertakings

Holder are referred to the offer restrictions set forth in "Offer and Distribution Restrictions" and the agreements, acknowledgements, representations, warranties and undertakings that Holders will make in tendering Notes in the Offer. Non-compliance with these could result in, among other things, the unwinding of trades and/or heavy penalties.

Responsibility to consult advisors

Each Holder is solely responsible for making its own independent appraisal of all matters as such Holder deems appropriate (including relating to the Offers, the Company and the Notes) and each Holder must make its own decision as to whether to tender any or all of its Notes for purchase pursuant to the Offer. Holders should consult their own tax, accounting, financial and legal advisors regarding the suitability to themselves of the tax or accounting consequences of participating in the Offer.

None of the Company, the Dealer Managers, the Information and Tender Agent or their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, advisers or affiliates is acting for any Holder, or will be responsible to any Holder for providing any protections which would be afforded to its clients or for providing advice in relation to the Offer, and accordingly none of the Company, the Dealer Managers, the Information and Tender Agent or their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, advisers and affiliates makes any recommendation whatsoever regarding the Offer, or any recommendation as to whether Holders should tender their Notes pursuant to the Offer.

Consideration for the Notes may not reflect their fair value

The consideration offered in the Offers to Holders of validly tendered and accepted Notes does not reflect any independent valuation of the Notes and does not take into account events or changes in financial markets (including interest rates) after the commencement of the Offers. We have not obtained or requested a fairness opinion from any banking or other firm as to the fairness of the consideration for the Notes. If you tender your Notes, you may not receive more or as much value for such Notes than you otherwise would have received with respect to such Notes if you chose to keep them.

Tax Matters

See "Tax Considerations" for a discussion of certain tax considerations with respect to the Offers.

PURPOSE OF THE OFFERS

The purpose of the Offers is to extend the Company's debt maturity profile in an efficient manner. The Offers are also being made as part of the Company's liability management and to provide liquidity to those holders whose Notes are accepted in the Offers. The Offers will be refinanced with the net cash proceeds from the Proposed Financing along with cash on hand, if necessary.

SOURCE OF FUNDS

On the date of this Offer to Purchase, the Company announced a proposed offering of new senior debt securities (the "Proposed Financing"). The Company expects proceeds from the Proposed Financing, along with cash on hand, if necessary, to provide the total amount of funds required to purchase the Notes validly tendered and accepted pursuant to the Offers and to pay all related fees and expenses in connection with the Offers. No assurance can be given that the Proposed Financing will be completed.

DESCRIPTION OF THE OFFERS

General

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Offer to Purchase and the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery and any supplements or amendments hereto or thereto, the Company hereby offers to purchase for cash any and all of the outstanding Notes on the terms set forth herein.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Offers or the waiver thereof by the Company in its sole discretion, Holders that validly tender and do not validly withdraw their Notes and validly deliver their Notes before the Expiration Time will be eligible to receive the Consideration, together with an amount equal to Accrued Interest thereon.

Only Notes that are validly tendered in accordance with the procedures set forth herein before the Expiration Time or Notes in respect of which a Notice of Guaranteed Delivery has been delivered pursuant to the guaranteed delivery procedures described below will, upon the terms and subject to the conditions hereof, be eligible for acceptance by the Company. If so accepted, payment will be made therefor on the Settlement Date or in the case of accepted Notes delivered pursuant to the guaranteed delivery procedures described below, payment will be made on the Guaranteed Delivery Settlement Date. No such payments will be made with respect to the Notes if the Offers are terminated. All conditions to the Offers, if any Notes are to be accepted for purchase after the Expiration Time, will be either satisfied or waived by the Company prior to or concurrently with the expiration of the Offers at the Expiration Time.

In the event of any dispute or controversy regarding the Consideration or the amount of Accrued Interest for Notes tendered pursuant to the Offers, the Company's determination shall be conclusive and binding, absent manifest error.

In the event of a termination of the Offers with respect to the Notes, all Notes tendered pursuant to the Offers will be promptly returned to the tendering Holders.

Concurrently with the launch of the Offers, the Company is issuing a notice of redemption in respect of any 2021 Notes not purchased by the Company in the Offer, at a price equal to the greater of (1) 100% of the principal amount of such Notes plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of redemption, if any, and (2) the sum of the present values of the remaining scheduled payments of principal and interest on such Notes (excluding any portion of such payments of interest accrued as of the date of redemption) discounted to the redemption date on a semi-annual basis (assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months) at the sum of (i) adjusted treasury rate (as defined in the prospectus supplement dated March 9, 2011 relating to the 2021 Notes) plus (ii) 20 basis points, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the redemption date.

The Company's obligation to accept and pay for Notes validly tendered pursuant to the Offers is conditioned upon satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions as set forth under "Description of the Offers— Conditions to the Offers." Subject to applicable securities laws and the terms set forth in the Offers, the Company reserves the right, with respect to the Notes, to (i) waive or modify in whole or in part any and all conditions to the Offers, (ii) extend the Expiration Time, (iii) modify or terminate the Offers, (iv) decrease the principal amount of Notes subject to the Offers or (v) otherwise amend the Offers in any respect. The rights reserved by the Company in this paragraph are in addition to the Company's rights to terminate the Offers described in "Description of the Offers— Conditions to the Offers."

Any amendment to the Offers with respect to the Notes will apply to all Notes tendered in the Offers. Any extension or amendment of the Expiration Time with respect to the Notes will be followed as promptly as practicable by public announcement thereof, the announcement in the case of an extension of the Expiration Time to be issued no later than 9:00 a.m., Eastern time, on the next New York City business day after the previously scheduled Expiration

Time. Without limiting the manner in which any public announcement may be made, the Company shall have no obligation to publish, advertise or otherwise communicate any such public announcement other than by issuing a press release to PR Newswire.

If the consideration to be paid in the Offer with respect to any series of the Notes is increased or the principal amount of Notes subject to such Offer is decreased, the Offer will remain open at least five business days from the date the Company first gives notice to Holders, by public announcement or otherwise prior to 10:00 a.m., Eastern time, on the day of such increase or decrease. If the Company makes any other material change to the terms of the Offer, the Company will extend the Offer for at least three business days, if the Offer would otherwise expire during such period. The Company will announce any such change in a press release issued at least three business days, or in the case of a change in the Consideration, at least five business days, prior to the expiration of the Offer and prior to 10:00 a.m., Eastern time, on the first day of such five- or three-business day period, as applicable. The Company will also describe any change in the consideration to be paid in the Offer with respect to any series of the Notes in a current report on Form 6-K filed with the Commission prior to 12:00 noon, Eastern time, on the first day of such five-business day period. During any extension of the Offer, all Notes previously tendered will remain subject to the Offer unless validly withdrawn at or prior to the Expiration Time. Any Notes that are tendered may be withdrawn at any time at or prior to the Expiration Time. See “Description of the Offers—Withdrawal of Tenders.”

No Recommendation

None of the Company, its management or Board of Directors, the Trustee, the Information and Tender Agent, the Dealer Managers or any of their respective affiliates makes any recommendation as to whether Holders should tender, or refrain from tendering, all or any portion of the principal amount of their Notes pursuant to the Offers, and no one has been authorized by any of them to make such a recommendation. Holders must make their own decisions with regard to tendering Notes and, if so, the principal amount of Notes to tender pursuant to the Offers.

Consideration

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Offer to Purchase, Holders who validly tender and whose Notes are accepted for purchase by us, will receive the applicable Consideration for each $1,000 principal amount of such Notes, which will be payable in cash.

The applicable Consideration will be calculated at the Price Determination Date. The Consideration for each series of Notes will be determined in accordance with standard market practice, as described below, using the applicable Offer Yield, which will be equal to the sum of:

(i) the Reference Yield, as calculated by the Dealer Managers in accordance with standard market practice, that corresponds to the bid-side price of the Reference Treasury Security specified on the front cover page of this Offer to Purchase for such series of Notes appearing at the Price Determination Date on the Bloomberg Reference Page specified on the front cover page of this Offer to Purchase for such series of Notes (or any other recognized quotation source selected by the Company in consultation with the Dealer Managers if such quotation report is not available or manifestly erroneous), plus

(ii) the Fixed Spread specified on the front cover page of this Offer to Purchase for such series of Notes.

Accordingly, the Consideration payable by us for each $1,000 principal amount of each series of Notes accepted by us will equal:

(i) the present value on the Settlement Date of $1,000 principal amount of such Notes due on the maturity date of such Notes and all scheduled interest payments on such principal amount of Notes to be made from (but excluding) the Settlement Date up to and including such maturity date, discounted to the Settlement Date in accordance with standard market practice as described by the formula set forth in Annex A to this Offer to Purchase, at a discount rate equal to the applicable Offer Yield, minus such total amount being rounded to the nearest cent per $1,000 principal amount of such Notes.

(ii) the applicable Accrued Interest per $1,000 principal amount of such Notes;

We will announce the applicable Consideration for each series of Notes as soon as practicable after they are determined by the Dealer Managers.

Accrued Interest

In addition to the applicable Consideration, Holders whose Notes are accepted for purchase will be paid the applicable Accrued Interest. Interest will cease to accrue on the Settlement Date for all Notes accepted in the Offers.

Denominations

Notes of a given series may be tendered only in integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof. Holders who tender less than all of their Notes of a series must continue to hold at least $1,000 in principal amount of Notes of such series Notes.

Expiration Date; Extensions

The Expiration Time is 5:00 p.m., Eastern time, on June 18, 2019, unless extended, in which case the Expiration Time will be such time and date to which the Expiration Time is extended.

Subject to applicable law, the Company, in its sole discretion, may extend the Expiration Time for any reason, with or without extending the Withdrawal Deadline. To extend the Expiration Time, the Company will notify the Information and Tender Agent and will make a public announcement thereof before 9:00 a.m., Eastern time, on the next business day after the previously scheduled Expiration Time. Such announcement will state that the Company is extending the Expiration Time, as the case may be, for a specified period. During any such extension, all Notes previously validly tendered in the Offer, and not validly withdrawn, will remain subject to the Offer and may be accepted for purchase by us.

The Company expressly reserves the right, subject to applicable law, to:

- delay accepting any Notes, extend the Offer, or, upon failure of a condition to be satisfied or waived prior to the Expiration Time, terminate the Offer and not accept any Notes; and
- amend, modify or waive at any time, or from time to time, the terms of the Offer in any respect, including waiver of any conditions to consummation of the Offer.

Subject to the qualifications described above, if the Company exercises any such right, the Company will give written notice thereof to the Information and Tender Agent and will make a public announcement thereof as promptly as practicable. Without limiting the manner in which the Company may choose to make a public announcement of any extension, amendment or termination of the Offer, the Company will not be obligated to publish, advertise or otherwise communicate any such public announcement, other than by making a timely press release and in accordance with applicable law and/or listing requirements.

Settlement of Notes

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, including satisfaction of the Financing Condition, the Company expects to accept for purchase on the Acceptance Date all of the Notes that are validly tendered and not validly withdrawn at or prior to the Expiration Time. With respect to Notes accepted for purchase on the Acceptance Date and delivered at or prior to the Expiration Time, the Holders thereof will receive payment of the Consideration for such accepted Notes on the Settlement Date, which date will be the date on or promptly after the Acceptance Date on which the Company deposits with DTC the Consideration for such Notes, together with an amount equal to Accrued Interest thereon. With respect to accepted Notes delivered pursuant to the guaranteed delivery procedures described below, the Holders thereof will receive payment of the Consideration for such Notes on the business day after the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery Date, together with an amount equal to Accrued Interest thereon (the “Guaranteed Delivery Settlement Date”). For the avoidance of doubt, interest will cease to accrue on the Settlement Date for all Notes accepted in the Offers.

Notes may be tendered and accepted for payment only in principal amounts equal to minimum denominations of $1,000. No alternative, conditional or contingent tenders will be accepted. Holders who tender less than all of their Notes must continue to hold Notes in the minimum authorized denomination of $1,000 principal amount.

Conditions to the Offers

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Offers and in addition to (and not in limitation of) the Company’s rights to terminate, extend and/or amend any or all of the Offers with respect to the Notes, in its sole discretion, the Company shall not be required to accept for payment, purchase or pay for, and may delay the acceptance for payment of, any Notes validly tendered (and not validly withdrawn), in each event subject to Rule 14e-1(c) under the Exchange Act, and may terminate any or all of the Offers, if any of the following has occurred:

- the Financing Condition, subject to waiver, has not been satisfied;
- there shall have been instituted, threatened or be pending any action, proceeding or investigation (whether formal or informal) (or there shall have been any material adverse development to any action or proceeding currently instituted, threatened or pending) before or by any court, governmental, regulatory or administrative agency or instrumentality, or by any other person, in connection with the Offers that, in the sole judgment of the Company, either (a) is, or is reasonably likely to be, materially adverse to the business, operations, properties, condition (financial or otherwise), assets, liabilities or prospects of the Company and its subsidiaries, (b) would or might prohibit, prevent, restrict or delay consummation of the Offers, or (c) would materially impair the contemplated benefits of the Offers to the Company or be material to Holders in deciding whether to accept the Offers;
- an order, statute, rule, regulation, executive order, stay, decree, judgment or injunction shall have been proposed, enacted, entered, issued, promulgated, enforced or deemed applicable by any court or governmental, regulatory or administrative agency or instrumentality that, in the sole judgment of the Company, either (a) would or might prohibit, prevent, restrict or delay consummation of the Offers or (b) is, or is reasonably likely to be, materially adverse to the business, operations, properties, condition (financial or otherwise), assets, liabilities or prospects of the Company and its subsidiaries;
- there shall have occurred or be likely to occur any event affecting the business or financial affairs of the Company and its subsidiaries that, in the sole judgment of the Company, would or might result in any of the consequences referred to in the second bullet above;
- the Trustee shall have objected in any respect to or taken action that could, in the sole judgment of the Company, adversely affect the consummation of the Offers or shall have taken any action that challenges the validity or effectiveness of the procedures used by the Company in the making of the Offers or the acceptance of, or payment for, the Notes; or
- there has occurred (a) any general suspension of, or limitation on prices for, trading in securities in the United States securities or financial markets, (b) any significant adverse change in the price of the Notes in the United States or other major securities or financial markets, (c) a material impairment in the trading market for debt securities, (d) a declaration of a banking moratorium or any suspension of payments in respect to banks in the United States or other major financial markets, (e) any limitation (whether or not mandatory) by any government or governmental, administrative or regulatory authority or agency, domestic or foreign, or other event that, in the reasonable judgment of the Company, might affect the extension of credit by banks or other lending institutions, (f) a commencement of a war, armed hostilities, terrorist acts or other national or international calamity directly or indirectly involving the United States, (g) in the case of any of the foregoing existing on the date hereof, a material acceleration or worsening thereof or (h) any event that has resulted, or may in the sole judgment of the Company result, in a material adverse change in the business, operations, properties, condition (financial or otherwise), assets, liabilities or prospects of the Company.

The foregoing conditions are for the sole benefit of the Company and may be asserted by the Company regardless of the circumstances giving rise to any such condition (including any action or inaction by the Company) and may be waived by the Company with respect to the Notes, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, in the sole discretion of the Company. All conditions to the Offers will, if any Notes are to be accepted for purchase after the Expiration Time, be either satisfied or waived by the Company concurrently with or before such time. If any of the conditions are not satisfied at the Expiration Time, the Company may, in its sole discretion and without giving any notice, terminate the Offers, or extend the Offers, and continue to accept tenders. The failure by the Company at any time to exercise any of the foregoing rights will not be deemed a waiver of any other right and each right will be deemed an ongoing right that may be asserted at any time and from time to time.

Acceptance for Payment and Payment for Notes

On the terms of the Offers and upon satisfaction or waiver of the conditions of the Offers specified herein under “Description of the Offers—Conditions to the Offers,” the Company will (a) accept for purchase Notes validly tendered (or defectively tendered, if in its sole discretion the Company waives such defect) and not validly withdrawn, (b) promptly pay to DTC, on the Settlement Date, the Consideration, as the case may be, plus an amount equal to Accrued Interest thereon, for Notes that are tendered in the Offers and accepted for purchase and (c) pay on the Guaranteed Delivery Settlement Date, the Consideration for such accepted Notes delivered pursuant to the guaranteed delivery procedures set forth below, plus an amount equal to Accrued Interest thereon.

The Company reserves the right, subject to applicable laws, to (a) accept for purchase and pay for all of the Notes validly tendered and not validly withdrawn at or prior to the Expiration Time with respect to the Offers and to keep the Offers open or extend the Expiration Time to a later date and time and (b) waive all conditions to the Offers for Notes tendered at or prior to the Expiration Time. Notes will be accepted for purchase in base denominations of $1,000. All Notes accepted in the Offers will be canceled and retired by the Company.

For purposes of the Offers, tendered Notes will be deemed to have been accepted for purchase, if, as and when the Company gives oral or written notice thereof to the Information and Tender Agent.

Payment for Notes accepted for purchase shall be made on the Settlement Date or the Guaranteed Delivery Settlement Date, as applicable, by the deposit of the Consideration for such Notes, plus an amount equal to Accrued Interest thereon, in immediately available funds with DTC. Under no circumstances will additional interest on the Consideration be paid by the Company after the Settlement Date by reason of any delay on the part of the guaranteed delivery procedures, the Information and Tender Agent or DTC in making payment to Holders.

The Company expressly reserves the right, in its sole discretion and subject to Rule 14e-1(c) under the Exchange Act, to delay acceptance for purchase of or payment for Notes in order to comply, in whole or in part, with any applicable law. See “Description of the Offers—Conditions to the Offers.” In all cases, payment by the Information and Tender Agent or DTC to Holders or beneficial owners of the Consideration for the Notes purchased pursuant to the Offers will be made only after receipt by the Information and Tender Agent of (i) a certificate representing the Notes or a timely confirmation of a book-entry transfer of such Notes into the Information and Tender Agent’s account at DTC pursuant to the procedures set forth under “Description of the Offers—Procedure for Tendering Notes” (a “Book-Entry Confirmation”), as the case may be, and (ii) a properly transmitted Agent’s Message (as defined below) through ATOP.

Tendering Holders will not be obligated to pay brokerage fees or commissions to the Dealer Managers, the Information and Tender Agent or the Company. The Company will pay or cause to be paid all transfer taxes with respect to the purchase of any Notes. If payment is to be made to, or if Notes not tendered or purchased are to be registered in the name of or delivered to, any persons other than the registered owners, the amount of any transfer taxes (whether imposed on the registered Holder or such other person) payable on account of the transfer to such other person will be deducted from the payment unless satisfactory evidence of the payment of such taxes or exemption therefrom is submitted.

The Company reserves the right to transfer or assign, in whole at any time or in part from time to time, to one or more affiliates, the right to purchase Notes tendered delivered pursuant to the Offers, but any such transfer or assignment will not relieve the Company of its obligations under the Offers or prejudice the rights of tendering Holders to receive payment of the Consideration, for Notes validly tendered pursuant to the Offers and accepted for purchase by the Company.

Procedure for Tendering Notes

The tender of Notes that are not validly withdrawn pursuant to the Offers and in accordance with the procedures described below will constitute a valid tender of Notes. Holders will not be eligible to receive the Consideration unless they validly tender their Notes (and do not validly withdraw their Notes) pursuant to the Offers at or prior to the Expiration Time. All Holders whose Notes are purchased pursuant to the Offers will also receive a cash amount equal to Accrued Interest thereon.

The method of delivery of Notes and the guaranteed delivery procedures, any required signature guarantees and all other required documents, including delivery through DTC and any acceptance of an Agent’s Message transmitted through ATOP, is at the election and risk of the Holder tendering Notes and delivering the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery or transmitting an Agent’s Message and, except as otherwise provided in the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery, delivery will be deemed made only when actually received by the Information and Tender Agent. If delivery is by mail, it is suggested that the Holder use properly insured, registered mail with return receipt requested, and that the mailing be made sufficiently in advance of the Expiration Time to permit delivery to the Information and Tender Agent at or prior to such time. Manually signed facsimile copies of the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery, properly completed and duly executed, will be accepted. In no event shall the Holder send any Notes to the Dealer Managers, the Information and Tender Agent, the Trustee or the Company.

Tender of Notes Held Through DTC. For a tender of Notes held of record by DTC to be valid and for a Holder to be eligible to receive payment for Notes that are tendered, the Notes must be delivered to the Information and Tender Agent pursuant to the book-entry delivery procedures described below, and an acceptance of the Offers must be transmitted to the Information and Tender Agent in accordance with DTC’s ATOP procedures, at or prior to the Expiration Time or in accordance with the guaranteed delivery procedures described below.

A beneficial owner of Notes held through a custodian or nominee that is a direct or indirect DTC participant, such as bank, broker, trust company or other financial intermediary, must instruct the custodian or nominee to tender the beneficial owner’s Note on behalf of the beneficial owner.

The Information and Tender Agent and DTC have confirmed that the Offers are eligible for ATOP. Accordingly, DTC participants may electronically transmit their acceptance of the Offers by causing DTC to transfer Notes to the Information and Tender Agent in accordance with DTC’s ATOP procedures for transfer. DTC will then send an Agent’s Message to the Information and Tender Agent. Holders using ATOP must allow sufficient time for completion of the ATOP procedures during normal business hours of DTC at or prior to the Expiration Time. Holders should note that such clearing systems may require that action be taken a day or more prior to the Expiration Time.

The term “Agent’s Message” means a message transmitted by DTC, received by the Information and Tender Agent and forming part of the Book-Entry Confirmation, which states that DTC has received an express acknowledgment from the DTC participant tendering Notes that are the subject of such Book-Entry Confirmation that such DTC participant has received and agrees to be bound by the terms of the Offers as set forth in this Offer to Purchase and that the Company may enforce such agreement against such DTC participant.

Guaranteed Delivery. If a Holder desires to tender Notes pursuant to the Offers and the Holder’s Notes are not immediately available or the Holder cannot deliver the Notes to the Information and Tender Agent before the Expiration Time, or the Holder cannot complete the procedure for book-entry transfer on a timely basis, or if time will not permit all required documents to reach the Information and Tender Agent before the Expiration Time, the Holder may nevertheless tender the Notes, provided that the Holder satisfies all of the following conditions:

- the Holder makes the tender by or through an eligible guarantor institution;
- the amount tendered is in minimum denominations of principal, or face, amount of $1,000, subject to the requirement that Holders who tender less than all of their Notes must continue to hold Notes in the minimum authorized denomination of $1,000 principal amount;
- the Information and Tender Agent receives by mail, overnight courier or facsimile transmission, before the Expiration Time, a properly completed and duly executed Notice of Guaranteed Delivery; and
- the Information and Tender Agent receives the certificates representing the Notes tendered, in a timely Book-Entry Confirmation, by the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery Date.

Guaranteed deliveries will be required to be provided by no later than 5:00 p.m., Eastern time, on June 20, 2019 (the “Notice of Guaranteed Delivery Date”), which is the second business day after the Expiration Time. The Guaranteed Delivery Settlement Date will take place on June 21, 2019. If the Holder is executing the tender through ATOP, the DTC participant need not complete and physically deliver the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery, but each Holder will be bound by the terms of the Offers.

FOR THE AVOIDANCE OF DOUBT, THE DELIVERY OF SUCH NOTES TENDERED BY GUARANTEED DELIVERY PROCEDURES WILL BE MADE NO LATER THAN 5:00 P.M., EASTERN TIME, ON THE SECOND BUSINESS DAY AFTER THE EXPIRATION TIME; PROVIDED, THAT INTEREST WILL CEASE TO ACCRUE ON THE SETTLEMENT DATE FOR ALL NOTES ACCEPTED IN THE OFFERS, INCLUDING THOSE TENDERED BY THE GUARANTEED DELIVERY PROCEDURES SET FORTH ABOVE AND UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES WILL ADDITIONAL INTEREST ON THE CONSIDERATION BE PAYABLE BY THE COMPANY AFTER THE SETTLEMENT DATE BY REASON OF ANY DELAY ON THE PART OF THE GUARANTEED DELIVERY PROCEDURES.

THE CERTIFICATES REPRESENTING THE NOTES TENDERED AND THE NOTICE OF GUARANTEED DELIVERY SHOULD BE SENT ONLY TO THE INFORMATION AND TENDER AGENT, AND NOT TO THE COMPANY, THE DEALER MANAGERS, THE TRUSTEE OR TO ANY BOOK-ENTRY TRANSFER FACILITY.

THE METHOD OF DELIVERY OF NOTES, THE NOTICE OF GUARANTEED DELIVERY AND ALL OTHER REQUIRED DOCUMENTS TO THE INFORMATION AND TENDER AGENT IS AT THE ELECTION AND RISK OF THE HOLDER TENDERING NOTES. DELIVERY OF SUCH DOCUMENTS WILL BE DEEMED MADE ONLY WHEN ACTUALLY RECEIVED BY THE INFORMATION AND TENDER AGENT. IF SUCH DELIVERY IS BY MAIL, IT IS SUGGESTED THAT THE HOLDER USE PROPERLY INSURED, REGISTERED MAIL WITH RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED, AND THAT THE MAILING BE MADE SUFFICIENTLY IN ADVANCE OF THE EXPIRATION TIME TO PERMIT

DELIVERY TO THE INFORMATION AND TENDER AGENT AT OR PRIOR TO SUCH TIME. NO ALTERNATIVE, CONDITIONAL OR CONTINGENT TENDERS OF NOTES WILL BE ACCEPTED.

Book-Entry Transfer. The Information and Tender Agent will establish a new account or utilize an existing account with respect to the Notes at DTC (DTC being a “Book-Entry Transfer Facility”) for purposes of the Offers promptly after the date of this Offer to Purchase (to the extent such arrangements have not been made previously by the Information and Tender Agent), and any financial institution that is a participant in DTC and whose name appears on a security position listing as the owner of the Notes may make book-entry delivery of Notes by causing DTC to transfer such Notes into the Information and Tender Agent’s account in accordance with DTC’s procedures for such transfer. Delivery of documents to DTC in accordance with such Book-Entry Transfer Facility’s procedures does not constitute delivery to the Information and Tender Agent.

Other Matters. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, payment for Notes accepted for purchase pursuant to the Offers will in all cases be made only after timely receipt by the Information and Tender Agent of (i) a certificate representing the Notes or a timely Book-Entry Confirmation pursuant to the procedures set forth above, as the case may be, and (ii) a properly transmitted Agent’s Message through ATOP.

Tenders of Notes pursuant to any of the procedures described above, and acceptance thereof by the Company for purchase, will constitute a binding agreement between the Company and the tendering Holder of the Notes, upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Offers.

By delivering an Agent’s Message, and subject to and effective upon acceptance for purchase of, and payment for, the Notes tendered therewith, a tendering Holder irrevocably sells, assigns and transfers to or upon the order of the Company all right, title and interests in and to all the Notes tendered thereby, waives any and all other rights with respect to the Notes and releases and discharges the Company from any and all claims such Holder may have now, or may have in the future, arising out of, or related to, the Notes, including without limitation any claims that such Holder is entitled to receive additional principal or interest payments with respect to the Notes or to participate in any redemption of the Notes.

All questions as to the form of all documents and the validity (including time of receipt) and acceptance of all tenders of Notes will be determined by the Company, in its sole discretion, the determination of which shall be conclusive and binding. Alternative, conditional or contingent tenders of Notes will not be considered valid. The Company reserves the right to reject any or all tenders of Notes that are not in proper form or the acceptance of which would, in the Company’s opinion, be unlawful. The Company also reserves the right, subject to applicable law and limitations described elsewhere in this Offer to Purchase, to waive any defects, irregularities or conditions of tender as to particular Notes, including any delay in the submission thereof or any instruction with respect thereto. A waiver of any defect or irregularity with respect to the tender of one Note shall not constitute a waiver of the same or any other defect or irregularity with respect to the tender of any other Note. The Company’s interpretations of the terms and conditions of the Offer will be final and binding on all parties. Any defect or irregularity in connection with tenders of Notes must be cured within such time as the Company determines, unless waived by the Company. Tenders of Notes shall not be deemed to have occurred until all defects and irregularities have been waived by the Company or cured. None of the Company, its management or Board of Directors, the Trustee, the Information and Tender Agent, the Dealer Managers or any of their respective affiliates or any other person will be under any duty to give notice of any defects or irregularities in tenders of Notes or will incur any liability to Holders for failure to give any such notice.

Subject to, and effective upon, the acceptance of, and the payment of cash with respect to the Notes validly tendered in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions of the Offer, a tendering Holder, by submitting or sending an Agent’s Message to the Information and Tender Agent in connection with the tender of Notes, as applicable, will have:

- irrevocably agreed to sell, assign and transfer to or upon our order or our nominees’ order, all right, title and interest in and to, and any and all claims in respect of or arising or having arisen as a result of the tendering Holder's status as a Holder of, all Notes tendered, such that thereafter it shall have no contractual or other rights or claims in law or equity against us or any fiduciary, trustee, fiscal agent or other person connected with the Notes arising under, from or in connection with such Notes;

- waived any and all rights with respect to the Notes;
- released and discharged us and the Trustee from any and all claims the tendering Holder may have, now or in the future, arising out of or related to the Notes tendered, including, without limitation, any claims that the tendering Holder is entitled to receive additional principal or interest payments with respect to the Notes tendered (other than as expressly provided in this Offer to Purchase) or to participate in any repurchase, redemption or defeasance of the Notes tendered;
- irrevocably constituted and appointed the Information and Tender Agent the true and lawful agent and attorney-in-fact of such tendering Holder (with full knowledge that the Information and Tender Agent also acts as our agent) with respect to any tendered Notes, with full power of substitution and resubstitution (such power of attorney being deemed to be an irrevocable power coupled with an interest) to (a) deliver such Notes or transfer ownership of such Notes on the account books maintained by DTC together with all accompanying evidences of transfer and authenticity, to or upon our order, (b) present such Notes for transfer on the register, and (c) receive all benefits or otherwise exercise all rights of beneficial ownership of such Notes, all in accordance with the terms of the Offer; and
- agreed, acknowledged, represented, warranted and undertook to the Company, the Dealer Managers, the Information and Tender Agent and their respective affiliates at the time of tendering the Notes, the Expiration Time, and the Settlement Date or Guaranteed Delivery Settlement Date, as applicable, that:
 - (a) it is the beneficial owner of, or a duly authorized representative of one or more beneficial owners of, the Notes tendered hereby, and it has full power and authority to tender the Notes;
 - (b) the Notes being tendered were owned as of the date of tender, free and clear of any liens, charges, claims, encumbrances, interests and restrictions of any kind, and the Company will acquire good, indefeasible and unencumbered title to those Notes, free and clear of all liens, charges, claims, encumbrances, interests and restrictions of any kind, when the Company accepts the same;
 - (c) it will not sell, pledge, hypothecate or otherwise encumber or transfer any Notes tendered hereby from the date of this Offer to Purchase, and any purported sale, pledge, hypothecation or other encumbrance or transfer will be void and of no effect;
 - (d) it is a person to whom it is lawful to make available this Offer to Purchase or to make the Offer in accordance with applicable laws (including the transfer restrictions set out in this Offer to Purchase);
 - (e) it has had access to such financial and other information and has been afforded the opportunity to ask such questions of representatives of the Company and receive answers thereto, as it deems necessary in connection with its decision to participate in the Offer;
 - (f) in evaluating the Offer and in making its decision whether to participate in the Offer by the tender of Notes, the Holder has made its own independent appraisal of the matters referred to in this Offer to Purchase and in any related communications without reliance on the Company, the Dealer Managers or the Information and Tender Agent;
 - (g) the tender of Notes shall constitute an undertaking to execute any further documents and give any further assurances that may be required in connection with any of the foregoing, in each case on and subject to the terms and conditions described or referred to in this Offer to Purchase;

(h) it has observed the laws of all relevant jurisdictions, obtained all requisite governmental, exchange control or other required consents, complied with all requisite formalities and paid any issue, transfer or other taxes or requisite payments due from any of them in each respect in connection with any offer or acceptance in any jurisdiction, and that it has not taken or omitted to take any action in breach of the terms of the Offer or which will or may result in the Company or any other person acting in breach of the legal or regulatory requirements of any such jurisdiction in connection with the Offer or the tender of Notes in connection therewith;

(i) if it is located in Italy, it is an authorised person or is tendering Notes through an authorised person (such as an investment firm, bank or financial intermediary permitted to conduct such activities in Italy in accordance with the Legislative Decree No. 58 of 24 February 1998, as amended, CONSOB Regulation No. 16190 of 29 October 2007, as amended from time to time, and Legislative Decree No. 385 of 1 September 1993, as amended) and in compliance with applicable laws and regulations or with requirements imposed by CONSOB or any other Italian authority;

(j) it is not located or resident in the United Kingdom or, if it is located or resident in the United Kingdom, it is a person falling within the definition of investment professionals (as defined in Article 19(5) of the Financial Promotion Order) or within Article 43(2) of the Financial Promotion Order, or to whom this Offer To Purchase and any other documents or materials relating to the relevant Offer may otherwise lawfully be communicated in accordance with Article 34 of, or any other applicable provision of, the Financial Promotion Order;

(k) it is not located or resident in France or, if it is located or resident in France, it is a (i) provider of investment services relating to portfolio management for the account of third parties (personnes fournissant le service d'investissement de gestion de portefeuille pour compte de tiers) and/or (ii) qualified investor (investisseur qualifié) acting for its own account, with the exception of individuals, within the meaning ascribed to them in accordance with, Articles L.411-1, L.411-2 and D.411-1 of the French Code monétaire et financier and applicable regulations thereunder;

(l) it is not located or resident in Belgium or, if it is located or resident in Belgium, it is a qualified investor, in the sense of Article 10 of the Belgian Law of 16 June 2006 on the public offer of placement instruments and the admission to trading of placement instruments on regulated markets, acting on its own account;

(m) it is not a person or entity (i) that is, or is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by a person that is described or designated in (A) the most current "Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons" list (which as of the date hereof can be found at: <https://www.treasury.gov/ofac/downloads/sdnlist.pdf>); or (B) the Foreign Sanctions Evaders List (which as of the date hereof can be found at: <http://www.treasury.gov/ofac/downloads/fse/fselist.pdf>); or (C) the most current "Consolidated list of persons, groups and entities subject to EU financial sanctions" (which as of the date hereof can be found at: http://eeas.europa.eu/cfsp/sanctions/consol-list/index_en.htm); or (ii) that is otherwise the subject of any sanctions administered or enforced by any Sanctions Authority as defined below, other than solely by virtue of their inclusion in: (A) the most current "Sectoral Sanctions Identifications" list (which as of the date hereof can be found at: <https://www.treasury.gov/ofac/downloads/ssi/ssilist.pdf>) (the "SSI List"); (B) Annexes 3, 4, 5 and 6 of Council Regulation No. 833/2014, as amended by Council Regulation No. 960/2014 (the "EU Annexes"); or (C) any other list maintained by a Sanctions Authority, with similar effect to the SSI List or the EU Annexes. Sanctions Authority means each of: (i) the United States government; (ii) the United Nations; (iii) the European Union (or any of its member states including, without limitation, the United Kingdom); (iv) any other equivalent governmental or regulatory authority, institution or agency which administers economic, financial or trade sanctions; or (v) the respective governmental institutions and agencies of any of the foregoing including, without limitation, the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the US Department of the Treasury, the United States Department of State, the United States Department of Commerce and Her Majesty's Treasury;

(n) the Company, the Dealer Managers and the Information and Tender Agent will rely on the truth and accuracy of the foregoing acknowledgements, agreements, representations, warranties and undertakings and it shall indemnify the Company, the Dealer Managers and the Information and Tender Agent against all and any losses, costs, claims, liabilities, expenses, charges, actions or demands which any of them may incur or which may be made against any of them as a result of any breach of any of the terms of, or any of the agreements, representations, warranties and/or undertakings given by it in connection with the Offer;

(o) it is not acting on behalf of any person who could not truthfully make the foregoing representations, warranties and undertakings or those set forth in the Agent's Message.

(p) all authority conferred or agreed to be conferred pursuant to its acknowledgements, agreements, representations, warranties and undertakings, and all of its obligations shall be binding upon its successors, assigns, heirs, executors, trustees in bankruptcy and legal representatives, and shall not be affected by, and shall survive, its death or incapacity;

(q) save in respect of the Company only as set out under "Tax Considerations" no information has been provided to it by the Company, any Dealer Manager or the Information and Tender Agent, or any of their respective directors, employees or affiliates, with regard to the tax consequences for Holders arising from the purchase of Notes by the company pursuant to the Offer and it acknowledges that it is solely liable for any taxes and similar or related payments imposed on it under the laws of any applicable jurisdiction as a result of its participation in the Offer and agrees that it will not and does not have any right of recourse (whether by way of reimbursement, indemnity or otherwise) against the Company, any Dealer Manager or the Information and Tender Agent, or any of their respective directors, employees or affiliates, or any other person in respect of such taxes and payments;

(r) it understands that acceptance by the Company for purchase of Notes validly tendered by it pursuant to the Offer will constitute a binding agreement between it and the Company in accordance with, and subject to, the terms and conditions of the Offer;

(s) the information given by or on behalf of such tendering Holder is in all respects true, accurate and not misleading and will in all respects be true, accurate and not misleading at the time of the purchase of the Notes on the Settlement Date or the Guaranteed Delivery Settlement Date; and

(t) it acknowledges that the Company, the Dealer Managers, the Information and Tender Agent and others will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing acknowledgements, agreements, representations and warranties and agrees that if any of the foregoing are, at any time prior to the consummation of the Offer, no longer accurate, it shall promptly notify the Company and the Dealer Managers. If it is tendering the Notes as a fiduciary or agent for one or more investor accounts, it represents that it has sole investment discretion with respect to each such account and it has full power to make the foregoing acknowledgements, representations and agreements on behalf of such account.

The representation, warranty and undertaking set out at paragraph (m) above shall, other than when such representation, warranty and undertaking is made by a Holder (and, if applicable, the direct participant submitting the relevant tender instruction on such Holder's behalf) at the time of submission of the relevant tender instruction, not apply if and to the extent that it is or would be a breach of any provision of Council Regulation (EC) No 2271/1996 (the "Blocking Regulation") and/or any law or regulation implementing the Blocking Regulation in any Member State of the European Union or the United Kingdom.

By tendering Notes pursuant to the Offer, a Holder will have agreed that the delivery and surrender of the Notes is not effective, and the risk of loss of the Notes does not pass to the Information and Tender Agent, until receipt by the Information and Tender Agent of a properly transmitted Agent's Message. All questions as to the form of all documents and the validity (including time of receipt) and acceptance of tenders and withdrawals of Notes will be determined by us, in our sole discretion, which determination shall be final and binding.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Offer to Purchase, payment of the applicable Consideration, and the applicable Accrued Interest with respect to the Notes tendered for purchase and accepted by us pursuant to the Offer will occur only after timely receipt by the Information and Tender Agent of a Book-Entry Confirmation with respect to such Notes, together with an Agent's Message and any other required documents and any other required documentation. The tender of Notes pursuant to the Offer by the procedures set forth above will constitute an agreement between the tendering Holder and us in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions of the applicable Offer. The method of delivery of Notes, the Agent's Message and all other required documents is at the election and risk of the tendering Holder. In all cases, sufficient time should be allowed to ensure timely delivery.

Compliance with "Short Tendering" Rule

It is a violation of Rule 14e-4 under the Exchange Act ("Rule 14e-4") for a person, directly or indirectly, to tender Notes in the Offers for their own account unless the person so tendering (a) has a net long position equal to or greater than the aggregate principal amount of the Notes being tendered and (b) will cause such Notes to be delivered in accordance with the terms of the Offers. Rule 14e-4 provides a similar restriction applicable to the tender or guarantee of a tender on behalf of another person.

A tender of Notes in the Offers under any of the procedures described above will constitute a binding agreement between the tendering Holder and the Company with respect to the Offers upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Offers, including the tendering Holder's acceptance of the terms and conditions of the Offers, as well as the tendering Holder's representation and warranty that (a) such Holder has a net long position in the Notes being tendered pursuant to the Offers within the meaning of Rule 14e-4 under the Exchange Act, and (b) the tender of such Notes complies with Rule 14e-4.

Withdrawal of Tenders

Notes tendered may be withdrawn at any time before the earlier of (i) the Expiration Time and (ii) if any Offer is extended, the 10th business day after the commencement of such Offer. In addition, tendered Notes may be withdrawn at any time after the 60th business day after the commencement of the Offers if for any reason the Offers have not been consummated within 60 business days after commencement. In the event of a termination of the Offers with respect to the Notes, such Notes will be credited to the account maintained at DTC from which such Notes were delivered or certificates for such Notes will be returned to such tendering Holders, as applicable. If the Company makes a material change in the terms of the Offers or the information concerning the Offers or waives a material condition of the Offers, the Company will disseminate additional Offer materials and extend the Offers to the extent required by law. If the Consideration to be paid in any Offer with respect to any series of the Notes is increased or decreased or the principal amount of any series of Notes subject to an Offer is decreased, such Offer will remain open at least five business days from the date the Company first gives notice to Holders, by public announcement or otherwise prior to 10:00 a.m., Eastern time, on the day of such increase or decrease. In addition, the Company may, if it deems appropriate, extend the Offers for any other reason.

For a withdrawal of Notes tendered at or prior to the Expiration Time to be effective, a properly transmitted “Request Message” through ATOP or a notice of withdrawal must be delivered at or prior to the Expiration Time.

If Notes have been delivered under the procedures for book-entry transfer, any notice of withdrawal must specify the name and number of the account of the appropriate Book-Entry Transfer Facility to be credited with the withdrawn Notes and must otherwise comply with that Book-Entry Transfer Facility’s procedures. Any Notes validly withdrawn will be deemed to be not validly tendered for purposes of the Offers.

Any permitted withdrawal of Notes may not be rescinded, and any Notes validly withdrawn will thereafter be deemed not validly tendered for purposes of the Offers; provided, however, that validly withdrawn Notes may be re-tendered by again following one of the appropriate procedures described herein at any time at or prior to the Expiration Time.

If the Company extends the Offers or is delayed in its acceptance for purchase of Notes or is unable to purchase Notes pursuant to the Offers for any reason, then, without prejudice to the Company’s rights hereunder, tendered Notes may be retained by the Information and Tender Agent on behalf of the Company and may not be withdrawn (subject to Rule 14e-1(c) under the Exchange Act, which requires that a company pay the consideration offered or return the securities deposited by or on behalf of the investor promptly after the termination or withdrawal of a tender offer), except as otherwise provided herein. All questions as to the validity, form and eligibility (including time of receipt) of notices of withdrawal of Notes will be determined by the Company, in its sole discretion (whose determination shall be final and binding). None of the Company, its management or Board of Directors, the Trustee, the Information and Tender Agent, the Dealer Managers or any of their respective affiliates or any other person will be under any duty to give notification of any defects or irregularities in any notice of withdrawal, or incur any liability for failure to give any such notification.

TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The comments below are of a general nature and are not intended to be exhaustive. Any Holders who are in doubt as to their own tax position should consult their professional advisers. In particular, Holders should be aware that the tax legislation of any jurisdiction where a Holder is resident or otherwise subject to taxation (as well as the jurisdictions discussed below) may have an impact on the tax consequences of an investment in the Notes including in respect of any income received from the Notes.

United Kingdom Taxation

The comments in this part are based on current United Kingdom tax law as applied in England and Wales and HM Revenue & Customs practice (which may not be binding on HM Revenue & Customs), in each case as at the latest practicable date before the date of the Offers. The comments relate only to the United Kingdom withholding tax treatment of the Consideration and the Accrued Interest and do not deal with any other United Kingdom taxation implications of holding, retaining, tendering or disposing of the Notes. References in this part to “interest” shall mean amounts that are treated as interest for the purposes of United Kingdom taxation.

Payments of the Consideration may be made without withholding or deduction on account of United Kingdom tax, provided that they do not comprise interest payable on the Notes. If and to the extent that any part of the Consideration is treated as comprising interest, it will be treated in the same way as the amounts paid in respect of the Accrued Interest described below.

Payments of the Accrued Interest may be made without deduction of or withholding on account of United Kingdom income tax provided that the Notes are, and continue to be until after such payment, listed on a “recognised stock exchange” within the meaning of section 1005 of the Income Tax Act 2007.

The New York Stock Exchange is a recognised stock exchange for these purposes. The Notes will be treated as listed on the New York Stock Exchange if they are both admitted to trading on the New York Stock Exchange and are officially listed in the United States of America in accordance with provisions corresponding to those generally applicable in countries in the European Economic Area.

In all other cases, interest will generally be paid by the Company under deduction of United Kingdom income tax at the basic rate (currently 20 per cent.), subject to the availability of other reliefs under domestic law or to any direction to the contrary from HM Revenue & Customs in respect of such relief as may be available pursuant to the provisions of any applicable double taxation treaty.

Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations

The following is a summary of certain U.S. federal income tax considerations of a sale of Notes pursuant to the Offers but does not purport to be a complete analysis of all the potential tax considerations. This summary is based on the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), the Treasury regulations promulgated or proposed thereunder, judicial authority, published administrative positions of the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) and other applicable authorities, all as in effect on the date of this document, and all of which are subject to change, possibly on a retroactive basis. The Company has not sought any ruling from the IRS with respect to the statements made and the conclusions reached in the following summary, and there can be no assurance that the IRS will agree with the Company’s statements and conclusions. This summary deals only with Holders who have held the Notes as “capital assets” within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). This discussion does not address Holders who tender Notes pursuant to the Offers and also purchase new senior debt securities pursuant to the Proposed Financing. This summary does not purport to deal with all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation (such as the alternative minimum tax or the Medicare tax on net investment income) that might be relevant to particular Holders in light of their personal investment circumstances or status, nor does it address tax considerations applicable to investors that may be subject to special tax rules, such as certain financial institutions, tax-exempt organizations, S corporations, partnerships or investors in such entities or other pass-through entities, insurance companies, broker-dealers, dealers or traders in securities or currencies, certain former citizens or residents of the United States, nonresident alien individuals present in the United States for more than 182 days in a taxable year, persons that are holding the Notes in connection with a U.S. trade or business or a U.S. permanent establishment, controlled foreign corporations, passive foreign investment companies, and non-U.S. trusts and estates that have U.S. beneficiaries. This summary also does not discuss Notes held as part of a hedge, straddle, synthetic security or conversion transaction, constructive sale, or other integrated transaction, or situations in which the “functional currency” of a U.S. Holder (as defined below) is not the U.S. dollar. In addition, this summary does not discuss any consequences resulting under any U.S. federal tax laws other than U.S. federal income tax laws (such as U.S. federal estate and gift tax laws) that may be relevant to a Holder in light of the Holder’s particular circumstances. Moreover, the effect of any applicable state, local or non-U.S. tax laws is not discussed.

THE FOLLOWING DISCUSSION IS FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY AND IS NOT A SUBSTITUTE FOR CAREFUL TAX PLANNING AND ADVICE. INVESTORS CONSIDERING THE TENDER OF NOTES PURSUANT TO THE OFFERS SHOULD CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS WITH RESPECT TO THE APPLICATION OF THE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX LAWS TO THEIR PARTICULAR SITUATIONS AS WELL AS ANY TAX CONSEQUENCES ARISING UNDER U.S. FEDERAL ESTATE OR GIFT TAX LAWS OR THE LAWS OF ANY STATE, LOCAL OR NON-U.S. TAXING JURISDICTION OR UNDER ANY APPLICABLE TAX TREATY.

The term “U.S. Holder” means a beneficial owner of a Note that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

- (1) an individual citizen or resident of the United States;
- (2) a corporation created or organized under the laws of the U.S. or any state thereof (including the District of Columbia);
- (3) an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or
- (4) a trust, if (i) a court within the United States is able to exercise primary jurisdiction over its administration and one or more “United States persons” within the meaning of the Code has the authority to control all of its substantial decisions, or (ii) it has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury regulations to be treated as a “United States person.”

The term “non-U.S. Holder” means a beneficial owner of a Note that is for U.S. federal income tax purposes, an individual, corporation, estate or trust and is not a U.S. Holder. As used herein, the term “non-U.S. Holder” does not include an individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of disposition, a former citizen or former resident of the United States, or any person whose income with respect to the Notes is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States (and, if an applicable treaty so requires, attributable to a permanent establishment in the United States).

If an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds the Notes, the tax treatment of a partner generally will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partners of a partnership considering tendering the Notes pursuant to the Offers should consult with their own tax advisor about the U.S. federal income tax consequences.

Treatment of Tendering U.S. Holders

Sale of the Notes. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, the sale of a Note pursuant to the Offers will be a taxable transaction to a U.S. Holder. Subject to the discussions under “—Accrued Interest” and “—Market Discount” below, a U.S. Holder generally will recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between (i) the amount of cash received on the sale of the Note (not including the amount allocable to accrued and unpaid interest, which will be taxable as described under “—Accrued Interest” below) and (ii) the U.S. Holder’s adjusted tax basis in the Note. The capital gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holder's holding period in the Note is more than one year at the time of sale. In the case of certain non-corporate U.S. Holders (including individuals), long-term capital gains are generally subject to a reduced rate of U.S. federal income tax. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitation.

A U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in a Note generally will equal the cost of the Note to the U.S. Holder, decreased (but not below zero) by any amortized premium in respect of the Note which has been previously taken into account. In addition, if a U.S. Holder has elected to include market discount in income as it accrues (as described below), then the U.S. Holder's tax basis in a Note will be increased by any market discount previously included in gross income.

Accrued Interest. Any amount received by a U.S. Holder upon the sale of a Note that is attributable to accrued and unpaid interest will be taxable to the U.S. Holder as ordinary interest income to the extent that such interest has not been previously included in income.

Market Discount. Gain recognized by a tendering U.S. Holder will be treated as ordinary income to the extent of any market discount on the Notes that has accrued during the period that the tendering U.S. Holder held the tendered Notes, unless the U.S. Holder previously made an election to include market discount in income as it accrues. A Note generally will be treated as having market discount if the stated principal amount of the Note at the time that the U.S. Holder acquired the Note exceeded the U.S. Holder's basis in that Note by an amount equal to or more than a statutorily defined de minimis amount. Market discount accrues on a ratable basis, unless the U.S. Holder has elected to accrue market discount using a constant yield method. Any gain in excess of such accrued market discount generally will be capital gain, as discussed above. U.S. Holders who acquired their Notes other than at original issuance should consult their tax advisors regarding the possible application of the market discount rules to a sale of Notes pursuant to the Offers.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting. In general, the Company and certain intermediate payors may be required to report certain information to the IRS with respect to the consideration paid to a U.S. Holder for the sale of a Note. The payor (which may be the Company or an intermediate payor) will be required to impose backup withholding, currently at a rate of 24%, if (1) the payee fails to furnish a taxpayer identification number ("TIN") to the payor or to establish an exemption from backup withholding, (ii) the IRS notifies the payor that the TIN furnished by the payee is incorrect, (iii) there has been a notified payee underreporting described in section 3406(c) of the Code, or (iv) the payee has not certified under penalties of perjury that it has furnished a correct TIN and that the IRS has not notified the payee that it is subject to backup withholding under the Code. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules from a payment to a U.S. Holder will be allowed as a credit against the U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability and may entitle the U.S. Holder to a refund, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Treatment of Tendering Non-U.S. Holders

Sale of the Notes. A non-U.S. Holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax on any gain realized on the sale of a Note.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting. Payments of interest on a Note, and the proceeds of sale of a Note, by a U.S. paying agent or other U.S. intermediary to a non-U.S. Holder will not be subject to backup withholding tax and information reporting requirements if appropriate certification of the holder's non-U.S. status (IRS Form W-8BEN-E or some other appropriate form) is provided by the holder to the payor and the payor does not have actual knowledge that the certificate is false.

Consequences to U.S. Holders and Non-U.S. Holders that do Not Tender Their Notes

A U.S. Holder or non-U.S. Holder that does not tender its Note will not realize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of the Offers and such U.S. Holder or non-U.S. Holder, as applicable, will continue to have the same tax basis, holding period and accrued market discount (if any) with respect to the retained Note.

DEALER MANAGERS, INFORMATION AND TENDER AGENT

In connection with the Offers, the Company has retained Merrill Lynch International, Morgan Stanley & Co. LLC, RBC Capital Markets, LLC and UBS AG London Branch to act on its behalf as Dealer Managers. Further, the Company has retained Global Bondholder Services Corporation to act as Information and Tender Agent, which will receive customary fees for its services. The Company has agreed to reimburse each of the Dealer Managers and the Information and Tender Agent for its respective out-of-pocket expenses and to indemnify it against certain liabilities, including in certain cases liabilities under federal securities laws. In connection with the Offers, the Company will also pay brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them in forwarding copies of the Offers and related documents to the beneficial owners of the Notes and in handling or forwarding tenders of Notes by their customers.

Any Holder that has questions concerning the terms of the Offers may contact the Dealer Managers at their respective addresses and telephone numbers set forth on the back cover of this Offer to Purchase. Questions and requests for assistance or additional copies of this Offer to Purchase or the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery may be directed to the Information and Tender Agent at its address and telephone numbers set forth on the back cover of this Offer to Purchase. Holders may also contact their broker, dealer, custodian bank, depository, trust company or other nominee for assistance concerning the Offers.

All correspondence in connection with the Offers should be sent or delivered to the Information and Tender Agent at its address or to the facsimile number set forth on the back cover of this Offer to Purchase. ANNEX A

FORMULA TO CALCULATE CONSIDERATION FOR EACH SERIES OF NOTES

YLD	=	The applicable Offer Yield expressed as a decimal number.
CPN	=	The contractual annual rate of interest payable on the applicable series of Notes expressed as a decimal number.
N	=	The number of scheduled semi-annual interest payments from (but excluding) the Settlement Date to (and including) the applicable maturity date.
S	=	The number of days from and including the applicable semi-annual interest payment date immediately preceding the Settlement Date to (but excluding) the Settlement Date. The number of days is computed using the 30/360 day-count method.
/	=	Divide. The term immediately to the left of the division symbol is divided by the term immediately to the right of the division symbol before any addition or subtraction operations are performed
Exp	=	Exponentiate. The term to the left of “exp” is raised to the power indicated by the term to the right of “exp.”
$\sum_{k=1}^N$	=	Summate. The term in the brackets to the right of the summation symbol is separately calculated “N” times (substituting for “k” in that term each whole number between 1 and N, inclusive) and the separate calculations are then added together.
Consideration	=	The price per each $1,000 principal amount of the Notes being priced (excluding accrued interest). The Consideration will be rounded to the nearest cent per $1,000 principal amount of such Notes.

Formula for Consideration for Notes:

$$\left\{ \frac{$1,000}{(1 + \text{YLD}/2)\text{exp}(N - S/180)} \right\} + \left\{ \sum_{k=1}^N \left(\frac{$1,000(\text{CPN}/2)}{(1 + \text{YLD}/2)\text{exp}(k - S/180)} \right) \right\} - $1,000(\text{CPN}/2)(S/180)$$
